Quota Club Receives Additional Gift From John L. Crawford

BRINGS HIS TOTAL GIFT UP TO $2,500

Contract For Remodeling Crawford Oak Ridge Will Be Let Soon

As an appreciation of the great effort which the New Castle Quota Club is making for the raising of funds for the maintenance of "Crawford Oak Ridge", New Castle's home for underprivileged girls, Mrs. Elizabeth White, chairman of the board of trustees, received a check for $1,500 this morning from John List Crawford, the donor of the home. This makes a total of $2,500 given by Mr. Crawford for this home recently.

In his letter Mr. Crawford stated that he would like to make the task of the members of the club for raising funds less arduous. The ladies are very grateful for this generous gift and feel that with such a loyal friend back of their great undertaking that they will meet with the greatest success.

Bids will be received next week. The new institution will not only be a home for girls who have been denied the privilege of a good home, but will surround all who are fortunate in staying at this home with the best of influences. An effort will be made to secure a position for each girl.

Deny Reports Of American Marines Killed In Fighting

State Department Makes Sweeping Denial Of Deaths In American Ranks

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Mar. 2. — A sweeping denial was made by the state department today of published reports that some American marines have been killed and wounded in fighting with Nicaraguan Liberals.

So far as the department has been advised by Admiral J. K. Latimer, the American commander of the occupational forces, not a single American marine or bluejacket has been killed in any "engagements" with the Nicaraguan revolutionists, it was claimed.

Published reports stated there have been American casualties which have been concealed by the censorship established by Latimer.

Expect Governor Fisher To Act Soon On Measure For New County Judge

(From News Bureau)
(State Capital)
HARRISBURG, Pa., March 2.—While Governor John S. Fisher made no commitment upon what his action will be towards signing the bill which would give Lawrence county an additional law judge the committee of Lawrence county business and professional men who waited upon him Tuesday afternoon came away satisfied of two things, first that the governor would be fair in his consideration of the matter and second that the need for a new judge had been presented to him in a clearcut manner.

Audience is Given.

Originally set for 2 o'clock the audience with Governor Fisher did not take place until 2:30, this because the chief executive had worked through the noon hour and at 2 o'clock was almost forcibly taken out to lunch by the man who watches over his working hours, Secretary Boyd Hamilton.

At 2:30 the governor returned and the audience was held in the main reception room. Attorney Charles H. Young president of the Lawrence County Bar association presented the need for a new judge and concluded with presenting the report compiled by a committee of Lawrence county attorneys. Dr. W. Charles Wallace, president of Westminster college then spoke, citing Lawrence county's heterogeneous population as being one or more conducive to litigation than one in which the citizenry was native born.

Governor Fisher displayed an intimate knowledge of Lawrence county and its conditions and seemed interested as the need of a new judge was presented. What he will do in the matter is something which only the next few days will show.

Indications New Congressman Will Name Postmaster

Dr. Howard Swick Becomes Congressman From District On Coming Friday

With Congressman Thomas W. Phillips of Butler, completing his duties in that office as representative from this district, within the Next two days it is apparent that the task of naming the new postmaster for New Castle will fall to the lot of Dr. Howard Swick of Beaver county, who becomes congressman from the district on Friday.

The civil service commission has not as yet made a report on the examination of the eight candidates who are seeking the appointment and it is not likely that the report will be made before Friday. Hence the duty of naming the New Castle postmaster will be one of the first to come before Congressman Swick.

This is probably the most important appointment in the district which the new congressman will be called upon to make in the near future.

By ALFRED MEYER
International News Service Staff Correspondent

SHANGHAI, March 2.—A wholesale murder and terrorization campaign instigated by agitators aiming to enforce a general strike immediately the Nationalist army succeeds in capturing Shanghai was uncovered here today through the arrest of an assassin, caught redhanded. The assassin had just killed a mill forewoman.

It was also revealed that the agitators planned to set up a local government by committee.

The assassin confessed to the murder, telling the court he received ten dollars for the crime.

The authorities today spread a police dragnet over the city in an attempt to round up all paid thugs and exterminate the "labor protection society".

The military situation still brewed today. A battalion of Shangtung infantry has been dispatched to Sungkiang, forecasting active participation by the Fengtien troops in the defense of Shanghai.

It is reported from Nanking that General Sun Chuan-Fang has tendered his resignation to Marshal Chang Tso-Lin, following what is believed to have been the compulsory replacement of General Meng Chao-Yoeh, Sun Chuan-Fang's field commander at Sungkiang, by General Lu Chang-Ting, one of the Shantung generals.

Governor Says Increased Fund For Roads Need

Declares Road Building To Be Delayed Unless Funds Are Raised

IS INDICATION OF GAS TAX RAISE

Believe Governor In Favor Of Imposing Additional Cent Gas Tax

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Pa., March 2.—The department of highways today placed on each desk in the senate and house a letter to Governor John S. Fisher emphasizing the need of additional funds if the road building program is to continue during the coming year.

The letter placed the amount available for new construction during 1927 at $2,500,000. The letter was accompanied by a voluminous table showing how the figures were arrived at.

Need Additional Funds.

"Unless additional funds are provided the people who are petitioning you and this office for additional road construction might as well save their time and ours," James L. Stuart, the secretary of highways, asserted in the letter. "We cannot make bricks without straw."

Basing its estimates on the present gasoline tax rate with the retention of the one additional cent the entire revenue of the department for the calendar year is placed at $38,660,000. From that is deducted $8,175,447.36 for sinking fund and interest requirements.

The estimated cost of the general operation of the department and road maintenance is placed at $21,-421,600. To that is added an item of $2,300,000 for the operation of the bureau of motor vehicles and the highway patrol. Special expenditures are carried at $1,750,-000 and the state share of state aid from the $5,000,000 appropriation from the motor license funds at $2,-500,000.

To Be Active.

That the department will "be active during the coming season" is asserted in the letter and the proposed expenditure of approximately $30,000,000 during that time is accounted for in detail.

Covering this activity the letter says:

"There is approximately $15,-000,000 of uncompleted contracts held over from last year due to the weather conditions during the last summer and fall. In addition to

Only three of our clubs are now members, and in order that we may receive the help that they are able to give and give them our support, she desires that a number of the clubs may join the general federation as soon as possible.

Mrs. Diehl, emphasized the meeting, March 16, in the ball room of the William Penn Hotel, Pittsburgh, when plans will be discussed for the convention of the southwest district which will be an event of November 10, at the Carnegie Music Hall of Pittsburgh, when the local club will take an active part.

Seize Vessel With Immense Whisky Cargo

Scotch Whisky Valued At Million And Half Is Captured

SEIZURE OCCURS OFF PACIFIC COAST

(International News Service)
SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 2.—The cutter Cahokia, with the rum runner Federalship in tow, was steaming towards San Francisco harbor today after making one of the biggest liquor seizures in the history of coast guard operations. It is estimated the seized vessel is carrying a cargo of Scotch whiskey valued at $1,500,000.

Four revenue cutters closed in on the Federalship yesterday, coast guardsmen boarded the vessel, confined Capt. S. S. Stone and 18 members of the crew under hatches and took possession of the craft for alleged violations of the United States customs laws. The vessel, according to word received here, was seized 300 miles from shore.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Mar. 2.—Consternation was rampant in the offices of the Consolidated Exporters, Inc., today when it was learned that the Federalship, carrying 11,-000 cases of whiskey, had been seized by United States coast guardsmen. The vessel cleared from here for San Salvador on February 22.

Officers of Colsolidated declared they were at a loss to explain the seizure, pointing out that all customs requirements had been met and clearances properly secured. The liquors the Federalship carried, according to R. Swanson, manager of Consolidated, was legally received here.

CONGRESSMAN MAKES CHARGES

Says Man Posing As "Tarbot" Has Had Most Checkered Career

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, March 2.—"Jerry Tarbot", the so-called nameless and memoryless war veteran, whose efforts to re-establish his identity have attracted nationwide attention, was denounced as "a draft dodger and a fake" today by Representative Royal Johnson, Republican, of South Dakota, chairman of the House committee on veterans' relief, during a hearing on a bill to award Talbot government compensation.

Johnson asserted he made his statements advisedly and upon the strength of a long investigation conducted by department of justice agents.

Read Name is DuBois.

Tarbot's real name, Johnson said, is Alexander DuBois and his father is now working in a hotel in Cuba. His mother, nee Bridget Riley, is dead, according to the federal agents' investigation, Johnson said.

Johnson declared Tarbot has a checkered career, including a number of marriages, and in substantiation of his charge he put on the stand a Mrs. Flora Lange of Detroit, who testified she was married to the purported nameless veteran in Toledo, O., on December 22, 1917, under the name of "Howard Noble".

Mrs. Lange testified she lived with the man two weeks in Erie, Pa., and then finally divorced him

Blair Home Struck By Southern Cyclone

Many friends of Victor J. Blair, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Blair, former residents of this city, residing on North street when they left the city in 1913 and moved to a plantation just outside Hattiesburg, Miss., will regret to learn that in the earlier part of the month, during a cyclone, his home was badly damaged but that fortunately he and his wife escaped injury.

Victor Blair operates what is known as the Balir Egg Farm and had just completed his duties for the evening and gone in for the evening meal when his attention was attracted by the roaring of the wind.

He looked out and saw an immense funnel shaped cloud bearing down in his direction and he and his wife had just time to put out the lights but not the kitchen fire and escape to the outside and lay flat on the ground until the storm had passed, wrecking their home.

The home of his parents Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Blair was not damaged in the least although but a hundred yards distant.

Victor Blair will be best remembered as a member of the New Castle high school football team in 1911 and 1912 when he played an end.

The Kiwanis Club was indebted to the influence of George W. Hamilton., passenger agent of the P. & L. E. railroad, for the opportunity of this lecture before the club.

CONGRESS PROBER DECLARES MAN IS PRESENTING FAKE

in January, 1918, on the grounds of "nagging and cruelty".

Johnson further told the committee that the "veteran" has another wife, his first, living in Schenectady, N. Y.

Arrested in San Francisco.

The department of justice investigation revealed, he said, that Tarbot had been arrested in San Francisco on charges of auto stealing under the name of "Blake". This has been substantiated, Johnson said, by comparison of finger-prints and other identifying records.

Tarbot has presented himself as a shell-shocked war veteran whose name, memory and past life were left on the battlefields of France. His case has enlisted the sympathy and aid of hundreds of people. He has appeared before veterans' conventions and American Legion posts to afford other veterans a chance to look him over and perhaps help him to regain his "lost personality".

Numerous veterans have been found who "remembered" seeing the man in uniform, some in France and some in this country, but all of his identifiers fell short of pinning anything definite on him as regards identity.

Unique. Case.

"This is a unique case," said Johnson. "If a man who served in France has lost his mind he should be taken care of, but maudlin sentimentality should not control us.

"Jerry Tarbot has been maintained by prominent people. I am now prepared to identify him."

Rep. Carter (R) of California took issue with Johnson and Mrs. Lange. He asserted that many of the incidents which Johnson referred to had previously been investigated and did not support Johnson's conclusion.

Rep. Sweet (R) of New York also cross-examined Mrs. Lange severely.

"Much of the record we will produce the committee has never seen," said Johnson. "We will show that Tarbot several years ago gave the names of DuBois and Noble to marines who have never been before the committee."

Jerry—supposedly hard of hearing—sat placidly as Mrs. Lange detailed the details of her marriage.

"Have you ever seen this man before?" asked Johnson.

"Yes."

"Were you married?"

"Once."

Married in Toledo.

She said that Tarbot was working for the American Car & Foundry company and that she had a rooming house in Detroit.

After marrying him in Toledo they went to Erie, Pa., she said. She obtained a divorce on grounds of nagging and "general cruelty," she said.

"There is no question that he is the same man except that he did not have a mustache or a scar on his face," she said. The scar, Jerry claims, was made by a German bayonet.

Mrs. Lange said that she had been married four times, Tarbot being her second husband.

She was hazy on many details. She could not remember the name of the preacher who married them or the judge who divorced her. She knew Tarbot a few months before they married, she said. She could not remember where they lived in Erie, but Johnson declared that justice department agents had found the place.

Mrs. Sue Seiple of Sharon, Pa., was placed on the witness stand. She knew Jerry as Howard Noble in Sharon in 1915, she said. Her name at the time was Sue Kahl, she said.

"There is no doubt but this is the man."

Tarbot, she said, had no scar on his face at that time.

She described him as a "pleasant man", but high tempered.

Tarbot, she said, told her that he was born in New York.

She declared that she hadn't seen Tarbot since 1916 until she stepped in the committee room.

She denied that Jerry was a sweetheart—just a friend, she said.

Had Been In Sharon

She received a letter from Los Angeles last spring, she said, when the Red Cross was trying to identify him. He had told them, she said, that he had been in Sharon.

"He described a girl that he knew to a former Sharon woman," she stated. She said "That must be Sue Kahl," and he said "it was."

"They sent me a photograph through the police and I recognized it."

The Veterans' Bureau, she said, brought her to Washington.

"Do you want to ask any questions?" Tarbot was asked.

"No, I don't think so," he replied.

"That sounds like the voice of the man I knew," she said.

She said Tom Misset and a Mrs. Brockway of Sharon might also identify him.

Carter hinted that Mrs. Seiple had passed Tarbot on the street twice and had failed to recognize him.

Makes Report

R. P. Burrus, special justice agent, told of investigating Tarbot. He gave a summary of the findings, as follows:

In 1915 and 1916, he said, Mrs. Sue Seiple knew him as Howard Noble.

In 1916 he was employed by Goodyear Tire and Rubber company at Akron, O.

Tarbot had said that his father was Pierre Dubois, a Frenchman who kept a store in New York His mother was Lucille Martin.

Mrs. E. B. Brockway of Sharon, Pa., confirmed statements that Tarbot lived at her home from June, 1916, to July, 1917.

Thomas Misset of Sharon, identified Tarbot as a man who worked under him in a munitions plant there. Tarbot said that he had a child or two.

Johnson said that Samples of Jerry's handwriting on an application for work would be compared with late samples by handwriting experts and would prove the case.

The hearing was adjourned to reconvene tonight.

Formerly of Sharon.

SHARON, Pa., Mar. 2.—Charges made by Rep. Loyal Johnson of South Dakota that "Jerry Tarbot", so-called nameless and memoryless war veteran, is Howard F. Noble, formerly of Sharon, bear out in part the story of Mrs. Sue Seiple of Sharon, who is in Washington to testify at a hearing before the house committee on veterans' relief.

Mrs. Seiple said that she identified "Tarbot" as Noble through a newspaper photograph and that she knew him previous to her marriage when she was employed at a local plant in 1916.

Noble, it was said, left Sharon for Erie in July, 1916, where friends learned he had enlisted in the army.

Constable Thomas Messett, Noble's foreman when he was employed here, also identified the photograph of "Tarbot" as that of Noble, and several other residents of Sharon are asid to have recognized the similarity of the two descriptions.

MILLIONS of women have changed from uncertain and hazardous hygienic ways to a new way called Kotex.

✓ You dispose of Kotex as easily as a piece of tissue. No laundry, no disposal problem.

You wear lightest, filmiest gowns without fear. Five times as absorbent as ordinary cotton pads.

You obtain it at any store, without hesitancy, simply by saying Kotex. Many stores have it already wrapped for you to pick up, pay for, and take home without even asking.

Package of 12 costs only a few cents. 8 in 10 better class women now use this way. Be sure to get the genuine, for only Kotex itself is "like" Kotex.

this, there is more than $10,000,000 of work to be constructed from funds allocated to counties and commitments for the completion of the primary system. Further, there will be approximately $3,500,000 expended for road construction from funds supplied entirely by the counties to be built under our supervision, and approximately $1,400,000 of work being performed by the department's field forces also held up on account of weather conditions."

Presentation of the letter and chart to the legislature is taken here as a certain forecast that the administration will back the imposition of an additional cent on the gasoline tax. If the legislature fails to pass the measure not yet introduced, failure of additional road construction will be held responsible for lack of funds.

The collection was made under the supervision of the Art Club and the following had pictures on display: Lee Randolph, George Shira, Mrs. W. L. Lee, Mrs. Benjamin Beisel, Mrs. J. Norman Martin, Margaret Russell Smith, Mrs. Blanchard, Edward Shields, Miss Emilie Salomon, Miss Evelyn Offutt, Miss Winifred Johnson, Mrs. J. B. Toy balloons were effectively used to decorate. The decorations were in charge of the Art and College Clubs.

Short talks were given by Rev. H. C. Weaver, Judge R. L. Hildebrand, Miss Margaret Walker of the W. C. T. U., Miss Violet King of the B. P. W. Club, Mrs. W. H. Mateer, president of the Butler Federation; A. W. Chilton of the Chamber of Commerce and Mrs. McCleary, a real daughter of 1812.

She presented as a slogan, "Know Your Courts", and told of a survey which is to be conducted of all criminal cases in the state of Pennsylvania, from January, 1926, to October, 1926.

Mrs. Adrian McCoy of Meadville, editor of the "Messenger", the official organ of the State Federation, had as her subject "Publicity", and stated the great importance of keeping before the world the work being done by the women of our clubs. There is a greater opportunity for women in journalism now than ever before and they must make the best of it. Her slogan was: "pay for newspaper space with news, not words, appreciate your editor, and work for clean journalism."

Miss Florence Diebert of Johnstown, second vice president of the National Federation, is greatly interested in junior work and stressed the idea of organizations for girls over the age of 17. This work may not only be helped by the federated clubs, but by the W. C. T. U., Y. W. C. A. and missionary societies. The general federation cannot live without new ambition and new life, which can only be found in the young people.

As a fitting close to a very successful meeting Miss Drescher and Robert Taylor sang a beautiful vocal duet.

FISHER ISSUES VARE CERTIFICATE

issued by former Governor Gifford Pinchot which has been called "the certificate of doubt."

Follows Vare's Request.

In the new certificate the form followed says "William S. Vare was duly chosen by the qualified electors." The Pinchot certification read "on the face of returns filed William S. Vare appears to have been chosen."

Issuance of the new certificate followed a written request from Vare in which he protested the procedure followed by Pinchot and asserted that it was "contrary to the spirit and provisions of the act" which requires the formal notification to the president of the United States senate.

Governor Fisher's communication to the president of the United States senate took the form of a resolution in which it was resolved that the Pinchot certification did not conform with the certificate prescribed by that body.

Although the governor's action last night came just before March 4 when Vare's term as U. S. senator begins, it was unexpected. The governor has asserted repeatedly that he had not discussed the issuance of such a certificate with anyone.

The Vare letter bore the date of February 28 and arrived here yesterday.

Fisher Certificate.

The Fisher certificate follows:

To the President of the Senate of the United States:

"Whereas, it appears that the certificate of election heretofore issued on the eighth day of January, 1927, by Honorable Gifford Pinchot, then governor of the state of Pennsylvania, to William S. Vare, to represent said state in the senate of the United States for the term of six years beginning on the fourth day of March, 1927, does not conform with the certificate prescribed by resolution of the United States senate; and

"Whereas, the said William S. Vare has presented a request in writing bearing the date of February 28, 1927, for an amended certificate in regular form.

"Now therefore, this is to certify that on the second day of November, nineteen hundred and twenty-six, William S. Vare was duly chosen by the qualified electors of the state of Pennsylvania senator from said state to represent said state in the senate of the United States for the term of six years, beginning on the fourth day of March, nineteen hundred and twenty-seven."

SENATE RUSHED FOR TIME; CLOSE OF SESSION NEAR

ed in the last decade, was planned by a coalition of Democratic and Insurgent leaders in order to smash an administration filibuster against a resolution, extending the investigating powers of the Reed campaign fund committee throughout the duration of the next Congress. A small group of administration senators, led by Reed (R), of Pennsylvania, and Moses (R), of New Hampshire, fought his resolution, it was said, in the belief that further campaign investigations would only furnish the Democrats with political fireworks for the 1928 presidential race.

The legislative functions of Congress were crippled by this filibuster, because in retaliation the Democrats and Insurgents refused to permit action on any other controversial matters—with the sole exception of the Andrews Prohibition Reorganization Bill, which was protected by cloture against all filibusters.

Worst Jam In Years

"I shall favor a continuous session until the hour of adjournment if the Reed resolution is not adopted before that," said Senator Robinson (D) of Arkansas, minority leader. "At least we will keep the senate in session throughout tonight."

Because of the filibusters—virtually every bill having some foes ready to talk it to death—the senate was caught in the worst legislative jam in many years.

In the House, there was less confusion but its efforts at enacting legislation were futile because of the senate deadlock.

The fight against extending the powers of the Reed Committee was the key log of the legislative jam. It was led by Reed and Moses. The former contended that the resolution would permit only a partial recount of the ballots cast in the last Pennsylvania senatorial election and would give the Reed committee carte blanche authority to conduct investigations this coming summer.

Reed (Pa.) sponsored a series of amendments calculated to drive Democratic senators into opposing the resolution. Two amendments would call for investigations in Southern states wherever charges were made that negroes had been disenfranchised in the last senatorial elections. If adopted, these amendments would cause defeat of the resolution.

Reed and Moses however were unwilling to permit a vote and as a result, the senate faced a complete deadlock in all its activities until after the dry bill has been enacted. Then, a legislative scramble will follow until Vice President Dawes bangs his gavel at noon Friday, sending the Sixty-Ninth Congress to its grave.

It is a waste of parental helpfulness to send boys to college to learn that life isn't worth living.

Will Interpret Role In High School Play

DOROTHY JEAN WALLACE

VIRGINIA REEHER

Says Mother Fisher: "There's nothing can be done by anything, Clara—when once the main thing is done. And that's the marriage. That's where all the trouble starts—getting married.'

You might suppose that Mrs. Fisher is a cynic, but she is only second in prominence to that of Aubrey Piper in "The Show-Off," which is being staged at Senior High School, March 3 and 4. Her philosophy of disillusion is good for a laugh a minute, and those who enjoyed the uproarious nonsense of Elmine Ludine in "A Lucky Break" will be prepared for a broadly humorous interpretation of this character by Virginia Reeher, who appears as Mrs. Fisher Friday evening.

The part, however, is susceptible of a more restrained treatment, and Dorothy Jean Wallace in the same role Thursday evening gives an interpretation equally effective but more subtle in its humor. Incidentally, Dorothy Jean is demonstrating her versatility in a part far removed from the girlishly charming ones she has previously played.

Norman Cotton as Joe, the boy inventor, thrusts grand opera on an unwilling family which fails to appreciate the advantages of the radio, and discovers a chemical formula which—but why anticipate? Every one says that Norman is ideal in the part, and when everybody agrees there must be some truth in the assertion.

George Ruggy as Mr. Fisher, the unobtrusive head of the family who finally rebels against the ubiquitous Show-Off, accomplishes a difficult bit of acting in striking contrast with the straight comedy part which he so successfully played in "A Lucky Break."

Robert Turner's part as Mr. Gill, while not long, is effective, and Robert McKenzie and Mac Chambers share the part of the insurance agent, completing a well balanced cast.

Production of "The Show-Off" marks a step forward in the work of the dramatic class. While the entertaining qualities of this comedy have been attested by box office receipts—incontrovertible argument—it goes a step farther than comedy and holds the mirror to life. Perhaps because we have known all the characters under other names "The Show-Off" will remain vivid in the memory when other plays are forgotten.

CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY AT SURPRISE PARTY

Honoring the birthday anniversary of J. H. Gross, a number of friends gathered surprise fashion in his home on Garfield avenue Tuesday evening. Radio music, 500 and euchre were the chief pastimes.

NOT TO BE TOLERATED

NEW CASTLE fire and police authorities will have the wholehearted support of people of the entire city in their investigation as to the person or persons responsible for sending in false fire alarms during the progress of fires in this city.

This malicious practice that has developed lately, is one that is not only unlawful, but is a menace that will not be tolerated.

Sending in false alarms of fire is uncalled for at any time, but the sending of alarms at a time when firemen are already busy on another call, is a practice that calls for the best service of the fire and police uthorities to effectively eliminate at once.

GEN. BUTLER TO SHANGHAI

GENERAL SMEDLEY BUTLER, one-time Director of Public Safety in Philadelphia and now "back home" with his marines, has been ordered to China. With the Marine Corps on the move to Nicaragua and in the general direction of China these last several weeks, it was no more than a matter of time until General Butler was sent somewhere to do something. He goes back to the scene of what, after all, was his most famous exploit. It was in China that a young marine lieutenant, hardly more than a boy, played a notable part in smashing one of Peking's gates during the Boxer War. He had a stormy time there and will, in all probability, be happier in Shanghai, or wherever his Chinese service sends him, than he was in Philadelphia.

THE BOY AND THE HICK TOWN

THE so-called hick town has lately become a source of great inspiration to our professional humorists.

A hick town, say the various users of this convenient formula, is a place where a backfire is never mistaken for a pistol shot; where bedtime is orthodox; where woodpeckers eat up the depot; where central can tell you whether it was a girl or a boy; where the neighbors will supply you with a conscience if you lack one; where there is no parking problem, where a curfew disturbs the residents' rest; where fine cut tobacco is no handicap socially, and so one and on.

With no intention of becoming terribly heavy over the matter, we want to add that a hick town is a place where 26 of our 29 presidents were born and where seven out of 10 of the immortals in New York's national hall of fame originated. A hick town that didn't have a name produced Lincoln. Hick towns gave us most of our great literary figures of the past and practically all of those now living. Hick towns produce our Edisons.

If we may, then we would like to suggest that a hick town is a place where a boy has an excellent opportunity to lay the foundation of future greatness.

BEAUTIFY NEW CASTLE

THE present is also an appropriate time when thought and effort should be directed to the aiding of nature by planting trees, flowers and shrubs. Just a little effort and care on the part of the citizens of New Castle in the planting and culture of such ornaments and adornments, will bring certainly joy and satisfaction.

It is manifestly unfair to ourselves, and more particularly to those of the future, to fail to do that which will make this city more attractive. Nature is entitled to help from mankind.

Make New Castle so appealing that home shall be all that is desired and the city so attractive to the visitor that he can truthfully say that nature and man have united in a wonderful work. There is no easier and better way to accomplish this than the direct individual effort in the propagation of trees, flowers and shrubs.

A word to the wise is often resented.

AMUSING THE CHILDREN

Rickety, ram, oh my!
A telling a tale am I,
Of a fly that flew
Near a man I knew
Who was shutting a sleepy-eye.
With a buzz and a boze
It tickled his nose
And danced on the rim of his ear,
And his face he'd clap
With a slapety-slap
To frighten the fly, my dear.

That curious fly would sing
With a zingety-zingety, zing,
He'd pick out a place
On his funny old face
To tickle like anything.
With a flip and a zip
He'd light on his lip
Or walk on the lid of his eye.
And the children just giggled
And chuckled and wiggled
While watching the man and the fly.

'Twas the funniest sight to see
A sleepy old man like me
Who was taking a nap
Going slapety-slap
At a fly every minute or three.
He'd pucker his nose
And he'd wriggle his toes.
He'd twist and he'd squirm and he'd shake.
And the little ones squeaked
And they tittered and shrieked
'Till they finally laughed him awake!

THE PATH OF DUTY—

Is usually clearer than easy.
Is always the shortest route to happiness.
Never leads away from God or right.
Is never made smoother by complaints.
Never leads to dishonor or betrayals.
Is never beset by an accusing conscience.
Has fewer danger zones than the way of compromise.

Hints and Dints

Man's ambition seems to be to own a gasoline station and woman's to run a beauty shop. Before the days of buzz wagons and bobbed hair it was hard to find ways to spend our money, but now, thanks to these modern accessories, it is not hard to spend it before it is earned.

The Department of Agriculture says we are eating less meat than at any time since 1921, and that meat consumption seems to be gradually falling off. We don't really need meat, anyhow. Elephants and horses don't eat meat, and look how strong they are.

When a Chicago policeman rushed into a house where a murder had been committed and assured the woman of the house that he would protect her, she told him she wasn't worrying over the murder, but it did worry her to see him tracking up her floors with his dirty feet. She must have been one of those model housewives they are supposed to turn out in the domestic science schools.

Only about two weeks remain in which to make out income tax returns. Some people forego the pleasure until the last minute, meanwhile they keep busy figuring out their city tax, school tax, county tax, mercantile tax, inheritance tax, amusement tax, automobile tax, dog tax and a few others. After the taxes are all cleaned up it is time to begin Christmas shopping.

An inmate of the Old Ladies' Home, aged 72, and a man of 77, both of Hackensack, N. J., have just taken out a marriage license. The woman has been a widow twice and the man a widower three times. Nothing is said about their previous marriage experiences, but they will probably give them something to talk about when the honeymoon is over.

One of the main sources of trouble in this modern world is the lack of first-hand information. Most of us make our decisions on tenth-hand information, and some people just seem to dream some of the scandalous stories they tell.

We must consider France as a businesslike nation, for the Frenchmen do not let their grudge against the United States interfere with business, for in 1926 they bought more goods here than from any other country. Of course they did, but it should be considered that a lot of that stuff was purchased in order that Paris wouldn't have to disappoint its American summer tourist trade.

It is now claimed that the epidemic of suicides of young people at college has been caused by the long, hard winter. We wonder what this sort of weak-kneed people would do if they had to spend a winter in Alaska or Siberia? They would know what a winter is then. This is about as silly an excuse as we have ever heard for suiciding. It is just natural for some people to do away with themselves, and they do it sometimes when it is a long, hot summer, too. As for ourself, though this old world is full of trouble and unhappiness, we're willing to stick around as long as we can and we're not going to help nature out any.

Comic Opera War.
Red and Bright Red.
Better Pay for R. R. Men.
Historical Accuracy.

By ARTHUR BRISBANE
(Copyright, 1927, By N. Y. American, Inc.

In battle fleet maneuvers off the Pacific coast last week a fleet of our destroyers "made believe" locating battleships after dark. A torpedo attack "theoretically" sank the battleships. The "abandon ship" order was given and 20,000 American sailors actually entered life boats and floated around a while to make it seem real.

If we had real war there would be no such comic opera. Airplanes going 200 miles an hour would overhaul our antiquated battleships and other floating craft like a wolf hound overhauling fat pigs. And those ships would go to the bottom without giving time to "abandon ship".

Nobody in this government seems to know that war conditions have changed. We have samples of flying ships, no fighting fleet, no systematic production of airplanes. We take what we consider the best of the few we have, send them on a ridiculous trip to South America, before they have quite learned to fly, apparently, and while they are amusing a crowd two of the best men are killed in a collision in the air.

As regards flying, our government program is idiotic, and dangerously stupid.

Certain clergymen are accused of being "red". Their accusers want them investigated by a congressional judiciary committee.

A clergyman is "red" when he doesn't believe that a whale swallowed Jonah and coughed him up on the land.

He is "red" if he believes that the advice to give all to the poor was really meant seriously.

He is "red" if he doubts that Joshua made the sun stand still in its trip around the earth, in spite of the fact that it doesn't go around the earth.

He is "red" if he says that the four angels could not have stood on the four corners of the earth because it hasn't four corners.

And he is bright red if he thinks anything should be done to let everybody have enough here, where so many have too much.

Premier Ibanez of Chile, South American imitation of Mussolini and Kemal Pasha, recently shipped a collection of reds out of the country, the shipment including the president of the court of appeals. Reds are accused of defying law and the courts. The super-red is the gentleman that defies all law in the name of patriotic dictatorship.

Western railroad managers oppose the demand of railroad conductors and trainmen for 7 1-2 per cent increase in wages. "The increase would total $13,000,000 a year", say officials. What of it? Increased railroad receipts and profits total many times $13,000,000 a year and are constantly going up. The railroads, if wise, will divide part of their rapidly increasing profits among men that do the work. Railroad conductors and trainmen carry the real responsibility of railroading. They are loyal, admirable servants of the public, and underpaid.

Ohio says motion pictures must be historically accurate. How will you manange that? History is 75 per cent imagination, much of it absolutely false. Writers of history are too near the picture to see it clearly.

Louis the Eleventh, usually described as a human devil because he hung men up in small cages, etc., was probably the most useful king that France ever had.

Caesar, according to Ferrero, was more of a scheming politician than the great hero that Froude and others make him. Nero did not play the fiddle as Rome burned, did not set fire to Rome. There is no such thing as "accurate history".

Wall Street played the "bears funeral march" yesterday with variations. Two and a half million shares of stock were sold. Thoughtful citizens who have felt for the last few months that it was "about time to go short" know how Croesus felt when he cried out, "Oh, Solon, Solon", standing on the woodpile to burn him up.

Railroad and industrial stocks went up. General Motors beat all price records for the year. Don't gamble, you can't win.

Mr. Hallwacha, employment secretary of Chicago's Y. M. C. A., says college graduates find it harder than others to get jobs. A diploma is a handicap.

One of our ablest educators who prepares scores of boys for college every year, says, "it takes them from three to five years to get over the bad effects that college has upon them."

Whatever makes a boy conceited before he really knows anything interferes with his chance of success. College life does that.

Mr. Grew is one of a not too large number of his countrymen who may be looked upon as a diplomatist by profession and training. For, after graduation at Harvard in 1902, and a period of extensive travel in Europe and in Asia, he entered the American consulate at Cairo, Egypt, as a clerk, and, after two years' service, was transferred to the United States embassy in Mexico City, passing from there to Petrograd, and then on to Berlin. Since the war he has served as Minister to Denmark and Minister to Switzerland. OBSTACLES FOR WOMAN'S RIGHTS

Woman's rights simply means giving women the same privileges as men and breaking the age-long slavery to which they have been subject.

There were many slave holders and slaves in the South who objected to abolition. They found the status of master and slave to be very pleasant. It doubtless was in many cases and contained many ameliorating conditions.

The condition of women is much like that of slaves. Their position is very pleasant in many cases. It is an easy thing for a woman to be "kept," that is, to be the wife or daughter of some man who is willing and anxious to support her.

The fundamental basis, however, for a good marriage is the economic independence of the woman. When she is able to stand upon her own feet she is in a much better position to drive a bargain with a man. When she is economically dependent she has to do about as he wants.

The condition of women for many thousands of years has been that of a slave, that is, she has been kept for man's enjoyment and supported by him for that purpose.

Only emerging into the condition of being an equal and free partner she finds many obstacles. One of these is the disposition of some married women to look down upon a woman who earns her own wages.

The woman wage-earner, however, is entitled to the highest respect. She is much more independent and less liable to embarrassment than the woman who is dependent for her means of support upon a man.

Every parent ought to train his daughters to make a living.

The old Jews gave every son a trade and every man ought to be able to make his living in the world and the same applies to every woman.

No better form of life insurance could be left a woman than some sort of ability or training to do something the world is willing to pay for.

She ought to have something else to sell besides her body.

That women are capable of making a living has been demonstrated many a time. There are certain kinds of calling in which a woman is more capable than a man and all discrimination against women earning their living should be stopped.

No person is entitled to higher regard than the woman who stands squarely on her own feet and is able to support herself.

Many women have various activities but they produce nothing that is of any account. Ages of tradition make them look down upon the wage-earner, but take it all in all the wage-earner is the one person in the world who is entitled to respect.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

DON'T KILL THE GOOSE

The power of taxation lodges within the governmental body vested with that power, the power to destroy. It might be considered a very crude statement if it was said today that American business is being destroyed by taxation. American business is, however, being threatened with destruction, not alone by Federal taxation, but by state, county and city taxes.

My attention was called recently to a statement made by President Moskovics of the Stutz Motor Car Company of America concerning motor vehicle taxes. He says that the motoring public has become one largest body of taxpayers in the country, and that while the motorists' share of the tax burden for roads in 1914 was five per cent of the total money expended, it has increased to more than 50 per cent. Since 1914 the motor cars, despite their amazing growth, have multiplied but ten times, he said. The exact registration figures were 1,768,963 in 1914, and more than 22,000,000 at the end of 1926. During the same period motor taxes have increased from $12,000,000 during 1914 to a gross state, national and municipal motor vehicle tax of $666,000,000 during the year 1925. This means that motor taxes have increased 50 times. Registration fees and gasoline taxes account for more than $450,000,000 during last year. Then the Federal excise taxes, the personal property taxes on motor cars in many states, the municipal wheel taxes in many cities and other special motor vehicle taxes run the total to a gross of approximately $700,000,000 for the current period.

Ostensibly the motor car tax money goes to help build and support roads. Before 1914 the public considered roads a necessity and the entire populace and property supported them. The motorists' share of the burden in 1914 was but five per cent. Now the motorists pay considerably more than half the entire bill, which amounts to about $1,000,000,000 a year, the motorists paying in excess of $600,000,000 a year for the last three years. During this crucial period when the motor cars increased ten times and the taxes on motor cars increased 50 times, the improved road mileage has increased but once, or just doubled. During 1914 there were 257,291 miles of improved roads in the land. Now there are about 500,000 miles. Road mileage has doubled, cars increased ten times, and taxes on car owning increased 50 times. Someone evidently has been asleep.

Our road-building records sound splendid until you measure the roads and the number of cars they will accommodate with safety. We hear much of 10,000 miles of new roads completed each year in recent years. Each mile of 18-foot road, which is the mileage basis of those 10,000 miles of new roads, will accommodate but 200 cars, in two lines moving at about 25 miles per hour. Each car at this speed needs 50 feet of roadway. This means about 20 feet between each car, on each line of the double track way. Thus the 10,000 miles of road will not accommodate the 2,500,000 annual increase of motor vehicles. The facts are actually worse than this. Despite 10,000 miles of new, improved roads each year, there are built but 6,000 miles of pavement. The other 4,000 miles of new road are really secondary roads in sparsely settled parts of the land. Where the pavement is laid, the road congestion will be found. At least 2,000,000 new cars annually try to get onto the 6,000 miles of new pavements that will accommodate but 1,200,000 vehicles with proper safety. Since 1919 we have had an increasing road shortage that in its accumulation now amounts to a mileage shortage of from 20,000 to 30,000 miles, measured by the demands, the increase in cars and the enormous motor tax funds annually forced from the motorists.

The taxes paid by automobile owners are rising. There is a point beyond which the taxes cannot be increased without destroying the motor car business, and the motor car business is only an index of trade. The tax making powers show no indication of lessening the burden. President Coolidge and Secretary Mellon do not fix taxes, but they have done much to reduce the Federal Tax burden. Every State and every County and every Municipality in the Union is going in the opposite direction.

POEMS I LOVE

BY CHARLES HANSON TOWNE

"The Dust Dethroned," by George Sterling.

Mr. Sterling is a California poet—a gigantic figure in our native literature. There are moments when he is almost sublime. He is remarkable in his sonnets. Some of them have the austerity and the clean perfection of Greek sculpture. His imagination takes him beyond this world and he roams where he wills. His is a robust, manly Muse—a poet to be grateful for.

Sargon is dust, Semiramis a clod!
In crypts profaned the moon at midnight peers;
The owl upon the Sphinx hoots in her ears,
And scant and sear the desert grasses nod
Where once the armies of Assyria trod,
With younger sunlight splendid on the spears;
The lichens cling the closer with the years,
And seal the eyelids of the weary god.

Where high the tombs of royal Egypt heave,
The vulture shadows with arrested wing;
The [illegible] boast of kings,
[illegible] children hear
(their mother's cry
And leave in mockery their toy—they leave
The skull of Pharaoh staring at the sky.

Rotary Clubs To Plan For Aid Of Crippled Children

Five Clubs To Be Represented At Gathering At Mercer—Other Mercer News

(Special To The News)

MERCER, Pa., March 2.—The five Rotary clubs of this district that will combine their efforts in this county toward the relief of crippled children by operation and medical treatment will all be represented at the meeting of March 4 here at the Hotel Humes when dinner served at 6:30 p. m. will be followed by addresses and a business meeting that has as its purpose their organization toward this aim.

The five clubs that have notified the committee of their intention of being present are the Sharon, Mercer, Greenville, Grove City and New Wilmington clubs. Dr. S. J. Dickey who is secretary of the organization of the five clubs formed some time ago for the purpose has roughly outlined the territory that each will be responsible for in the county.

The Sharon and New Wilmington clubs will have the southwestern and western parts of the county with the Buhl hospital at Sharon as their center of operation. The Mercer club will have the territory in the center of the county and south center with the Mercer Cottage hospital their center. Grove City club will have the eastern part of the county with the Grove City hospital their center.

The Greenville club will have the territory of the northwestern part of the county and the northeastern section with the Greenville hospital their headquarters. W. R. Robinson of Pittsburgh, who heads the state organization for the relief of crippled children, will speak at the Friday night meeting as will J. Lee Calahan of New Castle, who is head of the committee of the New Castle club in charge of this work. This is the first effort of such concerted nature for this purpose in the state on the part of Rotary clubs. R. F. English of Grove City, who is head of the organization, will preside at the Friday meeting.

An increase to the herd of 36 cows at the county home provide the proper supply of butter and milk is necessary, states the superintendent, T. C. White.

At present purchase of butter outside is made. More room in the barn will have to be made to provide space for additional animals.

The work of the mercantile appraiser of the county, Mrs. Elizabeth Starkey of Sharon, is completed in the city of Farrell. Mrs. Starkey is now working in Sharon. Payment of tax for the year is now arriving at the office of the county treasurer as a result of this survey. t is stated to date that 80 merchants have sent in their tax. The final date for payment is May 1. Not sufficient territory has been covered yet to give any indication of an increase or loss over the 1926 payments. It is stated that Mrs. Starkey, although the woman appraiser in the county, is covering the ground thoroughly.

The gasoline tax payment of $19,506.55 made to Mercer county by the state as its share of the tax from this county on gasoline sold is the largest on record.

The payment covers the last six months in 1926 and is based on one-half cent per gallon. With the payment of $15,580 made in August for the first six months of the year the county acknowledges payment during the year of $35,086 which under the law goes into the road fund.

With the payment of the balance now on hand to the contractor for the completion of unfinished work of 1926 this sum will constitute the sole balance in the treasury of this fund.

Edgar McGarr, proprietor of the Diamond cafe, plans the re-decoration of his place of business along with repairs that are now being made.

The walls of the room are to be finished in a two tone color with the purchase of a new lighting system that will show off to the best advantage this combined coloring. The front of the room is being revamped by the removal of the display windows and the use of this space for the accommodation of guests. The contract for the painting has been let.

The loss of Fred Michaels, whose home burned last week, was of such a serious nature that he will have to replace his household goods entirely.

Child Gets Sick Cross, Feverish if Constipated

Look at tongue! Then give fruity laxative for stomach, liver, bowels

"California Fig Syrup" can't harm children and they love it

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign the little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, remember, a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals "California Fig Syrup" for children's ills; give a teaspoonful, and in a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile and fermenting food which is clogged in the bowels passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless, delicious, "fruity laxative", and it never fails to effect a good "inside cleansing". Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on the bottle.

Keep it handy in your home. A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Fig Syrup", then see that it is made by "The California Fig Syrup Company".

Captain Kieb Has Busy Day At Westminster

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., March 2.—Captain William Kieb of the Life Saving Corps of the Red Cross spent a busy day at Westminster college Tuesday demonstrating to students and teachers the various ways and means of saving lives in the water and giving practical lessons in general safety.

Captain Kieb was introduced to the student body at the chapel service at 11 a. m. by Jack Hulme of New Castle, college swimmig instructor. Captain Kieb proved to be a very capable and interesting speaker. His talk dealt with general safety.

At 3 p. m. Captain Kieb demonstrated to the men of the college in the college pool, means and ways of saving swimmers from drownings. He showed how to break holds, how to make carries and methods of resuscitation. He repeated his demonstration to women students at 4 p. m.

The visitor who is working out of Washington, D. C. Red Cross headquarters came to Westminster at the invitation of Mr. Hulme. The Westminster swimming instructor is a member of the Red Cross Life Saving Corps and is an enthusiastic booster of the Red Cross program of teaching young men and women throughout the country how to save swimmers in need.

Careless Washing Spoils the Hair

The simple hair styles of to-day make beautiful hair a necessity.

Luckily, beautiful hair is now easily obtained. It is simply a matter of shampooing.

Proper shampooing makes the hair soft and silky. It brings out all the real life and lustre, all the natural wave and color, and leaves it fresh looking, glossy and bright.

While your hair must have frequent and regular washing to keep it beautiful, it cannot stand the harsh effect of ordinary soaps. The free alkali in ordinary soaps soon dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and ruins it.

That is why discriminating women, everywhere, now use Mulsified Cocoanut Oil Shampoo. This clear, pure and entirely greaseless product brings out all the real beauty of the hair and cannot possibly injure.

Two or three teaspoonfuls is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather which cleanses thoroughly and rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

It leaves the hair soft and easy to manage and makes it fairly sparkle with new life, gloss and lustre.

You can get Mulsified Cocoanut Oil Shampoo at any drug store.

A four-ounce bottle lasts for months.

Why Should You Suffer?

Hundreds of people right in this town have found quick relief and positive help by the use of this famous prescription. Hundreds of others suffer along, all dragged down, worn out before they commence, getting along with aches and pains, simply because they are not profiting by their neighbor's experience and taking the remarkable

World's Tonic

You cannot expect to be well while part of your body is stagnating with catarrh. That is what most of your trouble comes from. First there is inflammation of the mucous membrane that lines every part of your body exposed to the air. Blood congests—the membrane stagnates. Instead of doing its duty, it slowly poisons your whole body with foul secretion.

Sometimes your liver, or your kidneys, or your stomach gives way first. Whatever it is, you are half sick, dragging around, miserable all the time.

World's Tonic is for that condition—the result of a vast amount of research. It is prescribed to make you well—to stimulate your organs, drive out the poisons, enliven the processes, and clear up the catarrh.

You can't know until you try it. Then what we say will be mild compared to your praise. Start out today to be well! One bottle will make a big difference.

Sold by McKee's Kut Rate Store, Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., Paisley's, Smith's and all other first class druggists.

After Ten Years

"For ten years I had suffered from catarrhal trouble. It spread from my nose and throat until it seemed to be all through my body. I doctored the symptoms. When my stomach suffered I took stomach medicine. My liver seemed inactive and I kept stirring it up. Sometimes I got a little relief, but these troubles came back.

Then I started taking World's Tonic. The first bottle helped me greatly, and at the end of four bottles my troubles were gone. It was a wonderfully cheap way to get well, and I owe it to you to tell you about it. C. A. Turner, Midland, Pa.

Local Men Building Revere Beach "Rides"

Get Concessions For "The Comet", Tumblebug And Jazz Tunnel

SEASON TO OPEN MIDDLE OF APRIL

William Dewberry, Sr., Don McKibben, William Dewberry, Jr., of New Castle and Harry Traver of Beaver Falls have secured several amusement ride concessions at Revere Beach, near Boston and will be prominently identified with the amusement world of the northeast coast when the recreation season opens April 17. Their concessions represent an investment of $100,000.

They have made arrangements to operate "The Comet" which is a cyclone steel coaster which it is said without a doubt is the wildest, most daredevil and most sensational ride ever built. The coaster which is now under construction is full of dips, curves,, banked tracks, humps, twists, whirlpools and somersaults and is being built by the Traver Engineering company.

Alongside of the coaster will be a Tumblebug and underneath the Coaster the partners have made arrangements to build something new—a Jazz tunnel. With "The Comet," Tumblebug and Jazz tunnel as their concessions the New Castle and Beaver Falls men will have three of the largest operations at Revere Beach which is one of the most renowned playgrounds of the east coast.

To Start Campaign For Spanish War Veteran Members

An interesting meeting of Colonel Daniel Leasure Camp, United Spanish War Veterans, was held in the Legion Home Monday evening.

Commander Harry Lach presided.

A list of the comrades who live in Lawrence county was gone over and a campaign for new members will soon be started. There are a large number of Spanish War veterans living in Lawrence county, and there is no reason why Daniel Leasure Camp should not be one of the strongest in the state.

Commander Lach appointed the following committee to serve on the Memorial Day general committee: Comrades Fred Reaher, P. V. Ryhal and N. C. Patton.

It was decided to hold two meetings a month of the camp during March, April and May; these meetings to be held at the Legion Home on the second and fourth Mondays of the month, at 7:45 o'clock.

Does Your Stomach Trouble You?

—Swords and Stauffer

Mrs. Florence Singley

York, Pa.—"I was about as miserable as anybody could be, my food was not digesting properly and I had sick-headaches. I became very weak and nervous. A lady asked me why I didn't take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and it was through her suggestion that I did. Three bottles helped me wonderfully—it cleared my stomach of catarrhal mucus, that was the cause of my food not digesting properly, and in the course of time the sick headaches gradually left me, I became stronger and have little or no sign of nervousness. I can surely praise the 'Discovery' for what it did for me. I advise everyone with stomach trouble to give it a fair trial."—Mrs. Florence Singley, 218 Green St.

Man Thought Killed In Spanish War To Join Mother In Ohio

NEW PHILADELPHIA, O., Mar. 2.—Oliver C. Schoefield, 47, proof- reader for a Chicago mail order house, believed by his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Gladman, 74, Smyrna vicinity resident, to have perished in the Spanish American War, will meet her here Thursday for the first time in 38 years.

Schoefield, last summer, while touring Belmont county, where he was reared by his grandparents, learned that a half brother and half sister lived. Through the address of his half sister, Mrs. James Glad- man, Piedmont, Schoefield com- municated with his mother, who is spending the winter here with Jesse Eckelberry. Schoefield lost track of his mother who had married fol- lowing the death of his father when Schoefield was an infant.

Having defeated nearly all of the prominent college hockey teams of the middle west, the Michigan School of Mines sextet is now at- tempting to arrange a tour of the East.

Philadelphia Pharmacist Recommends Tanlac

Joseph H. Garfield, experienced druggist, was rundown and weak. Now hale and hearty again, enjoys former vigorous health. Gives full credit to Tanlac

Mr. Garfield owns one of the best known drug stores in Philadelphia, located at 5631 Chester Avenue. His business brings him in touch with all kinds of people and all kinds of medicines. What a man of his training and experience says is worth attention.

"For about two years I suffered greatly from indigestion," said Mr. Garfield, "and was troubled a great deal with gas. What little I could eat caused bloating until my stom- ach seemed about to burst, and the pain was intense. As result of this condition my nerves went all out of fix and sleep was impossible. I just rolled from side to side at night un- able to rest. Naturally, I lost weight rapidly and weakened greatly.

"So many people had spoken well of Tanlac that I decided to try it, and by the time the third bottle was finished all the disagreeable symptoms had disappeared. I was eating heartily, digesting normally, sleeping as well as ever, and put on seven pounds' weight. With that experience I have every confidence in recommending Tanlac as a good system builder, for it met every need of my case."

Thousands of citizens in every state of the Union have had exper- ience similar to that of Mr. Gar- field. If you're rundown from over- work, worry, or neglect start build- ing your way back to normalcy to- day. Get a trial bottle of Tanlac from your druggist. It is nature's own remedy made from herbs, roots and barks, according to the famous Tanlac formula. Over 52,- 000,000 bottles sold.

North Street Junior High Girl Wins High Honor For Writing

All's Well.

The clouds, which rise with thunder, slake;
Our thirsty souls with rain;
The blow most dreaded falls to break,
From off our limbs a chain;
And wrongs from man to man but make
The love of God more plain.
As through the shadowy lens of even
The eye looks farthest into heaven,
On gleams of star and depths of blue
The glaring sunshine never knew.

SPECIM AN OF LOCAL PUPILS PRIZE WRITING.

Wilma Lewis, 14-year-old pupil of North Street Junior High school was accorded the honor of having her specimen of writing placed first in an exhibit of writing in the February number of "The Business Educator," a magazine published by the Zaner-Bloser company of Co- lumbus, O. The Zaner method of writing is that taught in the New Castle schools as well as many other schools of the country.

Miss Lena Kuntz, teacher of writ- ing in the North street Junior High school says that in order to get the best results obtainable in her writing classes she prapares an honor roll every month. In each room the best spesimens are select- ed and then from the 19 best writers of all the rooms the best writing in the school is chosen. Thus there is held up before the students an incentive to be placed on the honor roll. And in this way this fine specimen of Wilma Lewis' writing was sent to Columbus and received the distinction it certainly deserves.

An exhibit of spelling papers is made also in which the spelling pa- pers showing the best writing are placed on exhibit in each room. Thus a practical application of writing is given encouragement.

R. F. Marshall supervisor of writ- ing in the New Casale schools once a month spends a day in the school checking up on the work of the teacher and students.

At the assembly period on April 15 a penmanship program is being prepared by Miss Kuntz in order to promote the interest in good writing. A play will be given il- lustrating the advantage of good writing. There will also be illustra- tions of work, charts, etc., illustrating the work of the students.

Ten Years Of Suffering Ended When Penna. Man Took Dreco

Says He Was A Complete Wreck And Must Have Taken A Barrel Of Medicine Without Getting Any Better

S. P. Thorp the Dreco man, will gladly explain the merits of Dreco to all callers at Eckerd's Cut Rate Store. Free samples given.

The following statement was given to the Dreco man by Mr. John Gostosri, 1032 Walter St., Pittsburgh, Pa. He says:

"For about ten or twelve years I have suffered so with my stomach my whole system became rundown. I ate scarcely anything but even then I would be in great distress with indigestion. I could not eat solid foods of any kind and I was so constipated my abdomen felt like it was filled with solid rock. I was also troubled with sick headaches and was so nervous I shook like I had the palsy. My liver was also very sluggish which made me suffer from dizzy spells that caused me to stagger so I overheard my friends say "John is drunk." I could not sleep at night and just seemed to lose all my strength.

"Dreco has surely done wonders for me. Before I began on it I must have taken a barrel of other medicines without getting a blessed bit of relief, yet Dreco made me well in seven weeks. Now I feel more like 45 than 67.

"I'm never troubled with my stomach, liver or bowels any more and the dizzy spells and nervous- ness have vanished. A thousand dollars wouldn't pay me to go back to the same condition I was in be- fore taking Dreco."

There would be less sickness and fewer hospitals in the country today if people would only heed the early warnings sent out by Nature that something is wrong. Dizziness, gas on the stomach, headaches, painful joints, poor digestion, belching, nervousness are sure signs of coming illness.

Mr. S. P. Thorp, the well-known Expert from the Dreco Labora- tories now at Eckerd's Cut Rate Store is telling scores of people every day how to take Dreco for best results. Go to see him. His advice is free.

Swimming Classes At Franklin High Highly Commended

Swimming classes and life saving classes of the Benjamin Franklin Junior High school were highly commended by Captain W. G. Kieb, field representative of the Red Cross Life Saving Corps, who saw an exhibition of the swimming at the Franklin school, while he was in the city.

More than 90% of the boys, and many girls are enrolled in the swimming classes at the school said Edward H. Geasa, instructor of swimming and of all those most all have learned to swim well enough that they can take care of themselves and many of them are becoming expert swimmers.

In the life saving classes sponsored by the Red Cross, Mr. Geasa says that he has about 35 boys in the Junior class and about 10 in the Junior and Senior schools who have qualified in the Senior Life Saving tests. There are also 12 girls who have entered the life saving classes.

In these life saving classes not only are the different lessons in teaching life saving from drowning given, but life saving of all kinds, including sunstroke, overcome by gas, accidents, etc. They are taught how to carry a victim from the water, how to break the hold of a drowning persons and how to resuscitate a person after getting them from the water.

No scholar is allowed to enter the life saving classes until he can pass the swimming tests, one of the first is to be able to swim five times the length of the pool.

The progress made in swimming in our schools both among boys and girls is to be highly commended, for since more than ever, vacations are being spent near the water it is almost necessary that young people know how to swim. Besides there is likely no exercise that brings into play all the muscles like swimming said Mr. Geasa.

CLEAN TEETH CAMPAIGN ON

Rose Avenue School Pupils In Midst Of Unique Campaign

Rose Avenue school is in the midst of a "clean teeth" campaign under the direction of Miss Margaret H. Jeffreys, nurse of the New Castle schools. Some 134 tooth brushes have been disposed of to the children and a new supply will be ordered.

Tooth inspection is held every morning in order to see that the scholars have given their teeth the proper care and since the campaign started on February 21 Miss Jeffreys reports a 90 per cent improvement. At the last inspection of some 350 pupils it was found that at least 50 of them had absolutely clean mouths and nearly all of the other 300 could be marked more than fair.

The children are encouraged in the work of cleanliness by being given grades according to the thoroughness with which they clean their teeth. At first there were few, yes, very few, A's but although the marking was made very closely it was soon found that several had to be pushed up from B to B plus and then an A.

Dr. C. M. Booher, the school dentist is doing the corrective work for the children's teeth. It is found that in the elementary grades there is little work needed, but thorough emphasis is placed upon the care of the teeth as a preventive of much work and pain later.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

BY MRS. MARY MORTON

MENU HINTS

Even a family that ordinarily eats meat tires of it occasionally. The egg and cheese dish included in the following menu would be a good substitute.

Eggs with Cheese
Baked Potatoes
Waldorf Salad Olives
Apricot Souffle Coffee

TODAY'S RECIPES

Eggs with Cheese—Melt one tablespoon butter, add one tablespoon sifted flour and blend well. Add one cup milk, one-half teaspoon salt and a few grains cayenne, and stir until smooth and creamy. Add one-fourth cup of grated cheese and stir until melted. Add three chopped hard-cooked egg whites. Pour the sauce over four slices of toast. Press three hard-cooked egg yolks through potato ricer and sprinkle over the toast. Serve immediately.

Apricot Souffle—Three level tablespoons gelatine, one and one-half cups cold water, three cups canned apricot juice, three tablespoons lemon juice, four and one-half cups canned apricots, one and one-half cups sugar, few grains salt, whites of one-half dozen eggs. Soften gelatine in cold water and dissolve in hot apricot juice. Add sugar, lemon juice and salt and when mixture begins to stiffen beat in whites of eggs which have been beaten stiff. Turn into wet molds or glasses, adding apricot halves. Chill.

SUGGESTIONS

Cretonne Bag

An old piece of cretonne may often be used to make a handy kitchen bag. Put eight different sized pockets on the straight piece of cretonne, bind all edges with tape and sew brass rings at the four corners. This can be fastened to the wall with screw hooks. Brushes, cord for electric iron, tape, twine, wax paper, bee's wax, paper bags and wrapping paper, dusting cloths, etc.

Coffee Sauce

If you like coffee flavor, beat two eggs until light, add a fourth of a cup of sugar, then pour over it one-half cup clear, strong, hot coffee; cook until mixture cools the spoon, then chill. When ready to use, mix with whip one-half cup of thick cream and fold coffee mixture into it.

Important Trifles

Hooks in the coat closet at the right heights for the different children of the family help train them to hang up their own things.

Molasses cookies furnish iron as well as sweetness for the school lunch.

MENU HINT

I am suggesting a fruit salad course as the principal dish at this luncheon because it is combined with cheese. The whole meal is easily and quickly prepared but good enough to serve to guests. Remember that well prepared food served with daintiness and prettily garnished will appeal to the average guest more than a lot of carelessly served.

Banana Salad with Cheese
Creamed Potatoes
Cake with Whipped Cream
Maple Frosting
Salted Nuts Coffee

TODAY'S RECIPES

Banana Salad With Cheese—slices canned pineapple, one cup cottage cheese, two ripe bananas, one-half cup mayonnaise, one-half cup currant jelly, one cup whipped cream.

Spread each slice of pineapple with about a tablespoonful of cottage cheese; place on lettuce leaf and cover with rather thin slices of banana. Serve with a dressing made by mixing equal parts of mayonnaise, currant jelly and whipped cream. The mayonnaise should be thick. Garnish with a cherry.

Creamed Potatoes—Boil Irish potatoes in their jackets until they are tender but not mushy. Peel and cut in dice. Make a cream dressing by melting two tablespoons butter, adding a large tablespoon flour, mixing smooth and gradually adding a cup or more of milk. Stir and cook until smooth and boiling, add seasoning and salt and paprika—or pepper if you prefer—and pour over the potatoes. Add a little finely chopped parsley.

Puff Cake—One-third cup butter, two cups sugar, one cup milk, two and two-third cup flour, three teaspoons baking powder, whites of five eggs or three whole ones. Bake either in cup cakes or layer. For the frosting mix confectioners' sugar with enough maple syrup to spread easily.

The average man's ambition is to lower his record.

LETTERS TO THE NEWS

MORE ON GAS TAX.

Ellwood City, Pa., Feb. 28, 1927.
Mr. Conway, Editor,
The News, New Castle.

Noticing an article in Monday's News concerning gasoline tax the writer thought you might be inter- ested in the attached editorial ap- pearing in the Patriot of Harris- burg, Pa., of recent date.

This man's article wanted some refuting statements from those that opposed the tax. Here is an edi- torial that might help.

Yours very truly,
B. J. Bell,
Pres., Ellwood City Motor Club

"GAS TAX ESTIMATES"

If the present rate of increase continues during the next two years Pennsylvania will derive $21,000,- 000 from gas taxes according to State Treasure Lewis. This sum is $1,000,000 higher than the esti- mate in the Governor's budget and $4,500,000 above the guess of the Auditor General.

As a consequence of this latest estimate, there is said to be less talk in legislative corridors than formerly about adding another cent a gallon to the gas tax, even though Governor Fisher in his inaugural intimated that such an increase might be necessary.

Motorists are a good natured lot of tax-bearers, but they do not take kindly to the suggestion that the load be increased, at least in the di- rection of gas tax. There is a cer- tain amount of logic in having the cost of road maintenance and build- ing borne by persons who use the roads, but it is a question whether the gas tax should be increased without further exploration of mo- tor tax sources.

For instance, scarcely an official word is heard about the amount of tax paid by the heavy trucks and the motor busses, which certainly are chewing up more than their share of the public roads. Just why this silence should continue is not clear, for the feeling is rather general that these huge vehicles which on account of their very size "hog" the roads and pound them to pieces are not paying their share of the bill.

It must be remembered that ex- cept for these heavy vehicles, road construction and maintenance would cost much less in taxes than is the case today. This increased cost is due to a relatively small per- centage of the traffic. The large percentage of cars could use roads much less expensive.

That being the case it would seem to be more in order than talk- ing gas tax increase to go into the question of the justice to the public of the taxes on that portion of traf- fic which costs the public most.

MAD DOGS AND LAWS

The following letter has been sent out to newspapers by the state secretary of agriculture:

There is at present in the state of Pennsylvania an epidemic of rabies. Mad dogs are running at large. Luzerne county, parts of Allegheny and Westmorland coun- ties are under quarantine. During the past year in the state two hun- dred fifty two persons have been bitten by mad dogs and five have died from hydrophobia. These facts should convince every one that the dog laws of the state must be enforced.

In brief the dog laws are: Every dog over six months of age must be licensed, must wear a collar and tag, must be chained or securely housed after sundown unless ac- compained by owner. Licenses and tags can be procured direct from your County Treasurer or through a Justice of the Peace, Alderman, Magistrate or Notary Public.

The license fee is $1.00 for male dog, $2.00 for female dog. Any person violating the dog law is liable to a fine of from $5.00 to $100, or thirty days in jail, or both.

The money derived from the licensing of dogs is used to pay all damages done by dogs to domestic animals and poultry; in addition it also at present finances the Bur- eau of Animal Industry of the Pennsylvania Department of Agri- culture in its work for the preven- tion, control and eradication of tuberculosis, hog cholera, abortion, rabies and other transmissible dis- eases, as well as poultry diseases.

Bear in mind that when you pay your dog tax you are paying for the eradication of tuberculous cows that your children may drink free from the germs of tuberculosis. If you are not obeying the law, get busy at once. Get your dog licensed and keep him chained. Our dog law enforcer may visit your home any day. We do not wish to prosecute any one but will prosecute every violator of the law without fear or favor.

With this kind, earnest warning you will have no reason for com- plaint if through neglect of yours, proceedings for posecution are entered against you.

If you know of any violators of the Dog laws please send their names to D. T. E. Munce, Bureau of Animal Industry, Harrisburgh, Pa.

Sincerely yours for law enforce- ment.

C. G. JORDON
Secretary of Agriculture

After the "Flu" is over —you need a Tonic

Help Is Needed To Restore Your Wasted Strength And Energy.

"Flu" leaves the body weakened and run down. In such cases a ton- ic is clearly indicated. Restore the appetite and rid yourself of that let-down feeling.

"Flu" is a very enervating dis- ease. It leaves its victims so weak and debilitated that there is as much danger from the after-effects as from the diease itself. In other words, after an attack of the "flu" you need a selective tonic to re- build the system so that you may have your old-time strength and energy restored.

S.S.S. is unequalled for restor- ing strength and vitality.

You owe it to yourself and fam- ily to give S.S.S. a trial. It helps Nature build up red blood corpu- scles. It improves the processes by which the body is nourished. It is time-tried and reliable. S.S.S. is made from the roots of fresh herbs and plants, and is prepared in a scientific way in a modern labora- tory.

S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

Dull Teeth Now Made Dazzling White Tender Gums Firmed... Made Coral-Like

This New Way Does Wonders Quickly. Noted Dentists Urge It. Accept 10-Day Tube Free!

SCIENCE has made important discoveries in restoring "off- color" teeth to clear whiteness, and in firming tender gums. One's whole appearance may be quickly changed.

Most tooth ugliness (as to color) now is traced to a film that forms on teeth. You can feel it with your tongue—a slippery sort of coating.

That film absorbs discolorations, breeds bacteria, invites tooth decay and gum troubles. Old-type dentifrices failed to combat it successfully.

That's why your teeth are now off color. Clear it off, and you'll be amazed at what white teeth you have.

High dental authorities urge a new-type, film-removing dentifrice called Pepsodent . . . different from all others. You feel that film coat go. Beautiful color and high polish come.

All druggists sell Pepsodent in large tubes. Or send coupon for test free. Do this now.

Busy Day In State Senate

State Senators Face Heavy Schedule Today; Score Of Bills Up For Passage

OPPOSITION IS RATHER WEAK

By WILLIAM B. BROWN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, Pa., March 2.—With a score of bills up for final action and twice as many on the second reading calendar, the Senate today faces the first Wednesday schedule since its convening.

So far no opposition has developed to any of the bills scheduled for final action today. It is expected that the Senate will wade through that part of its work in record time and then adjourn for the week.

The judicial salary raiser sponsored by Representative Marcus, Allegheny, which passed the House Monday night, was reported from committee. It would add $915,000 a bi-ennium to the judiciary payroll of the state.

Ten bills were reported from the committee on banks and building and loans at a short session last night. They included the Woodward, Philadelphia, measure, which prohibits building and loan associations from making syndicated loans. After passage on second reading two weeks ago the bill was recommitted for a public hearing.

The resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution which will permit the "greater Pittsburgh" consolidation was reported from committee following the public hearing yesterday afternoon.

The bill of Senator MacDade, Delaware, providing for the establishment of a state park at Chadd's Ford also was reported out.

Portrays Ben Hur In Famous Scenes

RAMON NOVARRO

The exciting race-duel twixt Messala and Ben-Hur stirs spectators almost to the point of frenzy at the production of "Ben-Hur", which will be seen at the Scottish Rite auditorium Friday and Saturday, March 11-12.

The celebrated chariot race is a great magnet, both to old-timers who remember the treadmill race in the old stage "Ben-Hur", and to the younger fans who have read about the vastly greater filmed race run by 48 horses abreast in a great outdoor arena.

The fine work of Ramon Novarro in the role of Ben-Hur is seconded by the superb portrayal of the Roman Messala by Francis X. Bushman.

Election Of Officers Principal Business Before State Session Today

READING, Pa., March 2.—Election of officers to lead the newly organized Pennsylvania Federation of Democratic Women was the important business today of the State Conference here which is attended by nearly 200 prominent women workers of the state. Mrs. Lynne Perry of Easton, one of the delegates from Northampton county, is a favorite among the lobbyists, although the political combat among the various community women's clubs is compared to a November election.

The following nomination committee was named to conduct the election: Mrs. J. W. Gallagher, Wayne county; Mrs. Frank Paris, Northampton county; Mrs. Persis Giering, Philadelphia; Mrs. A. A. Aitkins, York; Mrs. Minnie Eizweiller, Dauphin; Mrs. Margaret Steiner, Westmoreland; Mrs. Rose Winston, Cumberland; Miss Edith Miehle, Schuylkill; Mrs. Ida Allen, Allegheny; Mrs. V. J. Gangere, Lehigh; Mrs. Mary Wanner, Berks, and Mrs. Austin McCullough of Lancaster. Mrs. Mary Herbert of Allentown and Mrs. Perry are ex-officio members of the committee.

Only a woman's temper can equal the warmth of her love.

Procure Slides For Rose School

Additions Are Made To Playground And Playroom At East Side School

Two slides for the playroom and playground have been purchased by the children of the Rose Avenue school. The scholars have accomplished this feat by the selling of pictures to their friends.

This equipment for the physical education department has been quite a need and the children showed their interest in securing the purchase of the slides.

Thursday in the school is known as "scrub day" in the physical educational department. For on that day a general inspection of cleanliness is held in the gymnasium. All children are expected to take unusual pains with the cleanliness of their clothes, and with faces and hands scrubbed to the degree that they shine and hair slicked back they appear for inspection.

ALWAYS DEAD TIRED?

How sad! Sallow complexion, coated tongue, poor appetite, bad breath, pimply skin and always tired. What's wrong? You are poisoned. The bowels are clogged and liver inactive. Take this famous prescription used constantly in place of calomel by men and women for 20 years—Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. They are harmless yet very effective. A compound of vegetable ingredients and olive oil. They act easily upon the bowels, free the system of poison caused by faulty elimination and tone up liver.

Be beautiful. Have rosy cheeks, clear eyes and youthful energy that make a success of life. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, nightly. Know them by their olive color. 15c, 30c and 60c.

Makes Hair Behave But Doesn't SHOW!

There's a way to keep your hair justso, without any of that objectionable, "plastered-down" look. Just use a few drops of Danderine—comb it through hair, or use a Danderine-dampened towel—you'll be amazed at the way your hair then behaves, and it's beautiful lustre!

Any permanent wave or water wave lasts much longer and looks much nicer when Danderine is used instead of water to "set" the wave.

Of course, you know what Danderine does to dandruff! Dissolves every bit of it. Puts scalp in the pink of condition. Invigorates hair and hair-roots. Why use anything else?

Get a bottle of Danderine and start its benefits today. Every drug store in America has it, for only 35c. For the finest dressing you could find, and the best aid to hair health yet discovered, just try—

Prisoners Will Work On Montgomery Roads

County Officials To Try Plan; Money Convicts Earn Going To Families

NORRISTOWN, March 2.—Montgomery county will use prison labor to repair county roads and thereby carry out the "hard labor" provisions of court sentences it was announced this afternoon by Controller Irvin after a conference with Warden Fellman of the county prison. The announcement was made after a checkup on state laws referring to jails and prisoners and it was decided there is no barrier to employment of convicts on road work.

Under the law a daily wage of 25c will be paid each prisoner but the county officials expect to use the money thus earned in some cases to relieve the county poor board which is caring for families of a number of convicts.

The step also is expected to solve the problem of obtaining laborers for road improvements which officials say has been difficult. Employment of additional guards and trucks to transport prisoners will be necessary.

Juniors Give Play To Capacity Crowd

Fine Presentation Of Popular Play, "The New Poor", Given Last Night

ELLWOOD CITY, March 2.—Over 1,100 people enjoyed the rendition of "The New Poor", this year's dramatic offering of the members of the Junior class, to obtain funds which will swell the class treasury for the purpose of banqueting the outgoing Seniors this June.

The theme dealt with royalty in Europe coming to America as a result of impoverished fortunes and going into "service" as maid, butler and chauffeur, respectively.

During three acts the plot revolves about the humorous and tragic happenings to these three unfortunates, but of course, ends in the proverbial "clinch", and all live happily ever after.

Frank Zeigler, as Kirk O'Farrel, detective, and James Brady as the Grand Duke, deserve special mention for their fine characterizations. Among the girls the Misses Pauline Jackson, Ila Nichols and Margaret Leibendorfer stood out by their splendid interpretations of the three daughters of Mrs. Willby.

The play opened with the scene laid in the Willby country home near the city on a Saturday night in early spring; act two opens with the same scene five weeks later, and act three is just five minutes later. The action of the entire plot was speedy and showed careful training.

The success of last night's performance is largely due to the untiring efforts of Miss Lucille Gibson and Miss Helen Sponcler of the faculty, who coached the members of the class in their parts. At the close of the performance last night these two directors were presented with beautiful bouquets of roses as a token of the appreciation of the Juniors.

The business end of the performance was capably handled by Tony Pasta in the capacity of business manager; Wilbur Schrock, advertising manager and Charles Rabberman, stage manager, and Harry Lambert as property man.

Members of the cast were:

Princess Irma—Miss Doris May.
Mary Maudsley—Miss Muriel Bourne.
Connie Wellby—Miss Ila Nicholl.
Alice Wellby—Miss Pauline Jackson.
Betty Wellby—Miss Margaret Leibendorfer.
Amos Wellby—James MacMurdo.
Kirk O'Farrel—Frank Zeigler.
Prince Vladimer—Kenneth Haswell.
Mr. Gutteridge—Jesse Morrison.
Grand Duke—James Brady.
Count Ivan—Jack O'Neil.

ESPECIAL TRIBUTE TO JIM MacMURDO

Mrs. Hendricks Favors Present Flapper Styles

Mrs. Hendricks At Woman's Club Gives Delightful Fashion Doll Show

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., Mar. 2.—The speaker at the regular monthly meeting of the Womens club which took place Tuesday afternoon in the parlors of the First Presbyterian church was Mrs. Hendricks of the Boswell Women's club.

Her subject was "The Emancipation of Woman," and she handled the facts most interestingly, beginning with styles during the Revolutionary War, when the wasp-waist was considered the last gasp in sartorial perfection but absolutely ruined feminine interiors. From that time on styles gradually became more human and comfortable until the present day when legs are no longer a mystery, but ordinary through the younger generation's use of the short skirts and freedom of the knees.

Another interesting feature of the afternoon's performance was the demonstration of an iceless refrigerator from which a dainty dessert was served for the delectation of the guests.

Tickets are now on sale by the members for the musicale "In A Persian Garden" which will be under the auspices of the club, March 30 at the Liberty theater. This is to be one of the nicest affairs of the season.

Hostesses yesterday afternoon were: Mrs. W. R. Thompson, Mrs. Thomas Wulson and Mrs. Kimmich.

ELIMINATING PAIN

"Vital Air" for the Teeth

Ignorance and fear of pain keep thousands from having their teeth cared for. It has been said that the bravest man alive is a coward when it comes to visiting the dentist.

After many experiments, painless dentistry is now an assured fact.

Here "Vital Air," a wonderful anesthetic, enables us to perform any number of dental operations without pain. When this anesthetic is used a tooth can be taken out without hurting the patient a bit. Teeth can also be filled and crowned and nerves removed without causing discomfort.

Next to the general excellence of the work itself we take much pride in being able to do it with so little discomfort to the patient.

"It didn't hurt a bit" is a favorite expression of many of our patients. We have scores of written testimonials to prove it.

There is today no reason at all for being afraid of pain if you have your dental work done at Dr. Finkelstein's.

Remember. Even difficult work on sensitive teeth can be done painlessly. Let us prove it!

A Few Testimonials Proving "There Is No Hurt"

I had several bad teeth extracted at Dr. Finkelstein's office, and I never felt the least of pain.
Miss Esther Thompson,

I surely had a nice dream. When I awoke both of my teeth were out. I will recommend "Vital Air" to any one.

PETERS ADVENTURES IN ANIMAL LAND

By Florence Smith Vincent

Petares had done a good morning's work. With three birds in the hand, fat birds too, he had other and better things to think about than the damage the locusts had done. Besides, the plague had passed; the old grain robbers would not be around for another seventeen years at least, and in the meantime the crops would grow again—a wise locust himself had promised that—and while they were waiting for another harvest there was the river with its wild fowl and its fish. Guess, with a clever hunter like himself, the family would not starve!

"Things don't look half so black today as they did last night!" Petares was beginning to be his old happy self again. "Ho hum, hound of mine, I am tired. If you think 'tis easy work standing still as a marble column for moments that you lose the count of in water up to your neck, you just try it! For a while, hound, I thought to give myself away. The rushes were so thick I had hard work to breathe. Only the fear of the meal I would miss held my hands beneath the water. I did so want to part them. Ho hum, an hour later at home will not matter. Let's sit in the cool shade by the river before we take to the scorching dust of the road. 'Tis a long, long way back, you know, and rest will give strength to our legs."

What dog ever refused a rest, possibly a snooze, when he could get it? Certainly not the lean dog which called Petares master. So, together, the two strolled along the bank looking for a pleasant spot. And they had not gone far before they found it.

Daytime is sleepy time by the waters of the Nile. And Petares' head was nodding when a smothered "Woof" from the lean dog roused him.

"Master, look! A little goat! See, he spiks toward us, but, alas, he ventures too near the stream. If he does not watch his step he will fall in. Where has he strayed from, think you, master, and where is he going? A run-a-way, I'll wager! Surely it is dangerous for a young kid to be wandering so far from the herd alone! There are those whom he might meet who would consider him a finer meal than fowl!"

Next: "Saucy and Too Sure."

NEW CASTLE TO PLAY FARRELL HERE TONIGHT

Final Game Of Floor Season

New Castle High To Wind Up Home Season Tonight By Meeting Farrell

GOOD CONTEST SEEMS CERTAIN

By "BUGS"

New Castle High will be seen in action for the last time tonight on the Senior High court, when they tackle the strong Farrell High team. The game will start at 8 o'clock.

The Farrell team is one of the strong contenders for the Mercer county title, and they are reported as having one of the best teams in the history of the Farrell institution. The "Steelers" as they are known will give the Red and Black tossers plenty of opposition tonight. Farrell holds victories over such teams as Sharon, Meadville, Sharpsville, West Middlesex and others of well known calibre.

The game tonight will serve the locals as a tune-up for the championship game to be played in Pittsburgh on next Friday night. The locals have been inactive since their recent defeat at the hands of Ellwood City high and they are "rarin' to go".

Coach Bridenbaugh is satisfied with the lineup that has served the locals for the past several games with Reider and Franklin at the forwards, McGrath at center, and Ostrosky and Sillman at the guards. It is likely that Johnson, McClelland, Kulich and Richards will see service in the game before it is over.

New Castle High fans will have their last peek at the locals on the home court this year and indications are that a huge crowd will attend the curtain dropper here tonight. Season tickets will be good for the game tonight, according to word from Gardner.

Geneva Plays At Westminster This Evening

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., March 2.—Bright eyed and confident as a result of their surprising victory over Waynesburg Monday evening the Geneva college basketball team will invade Westminster's home territory Wednesday evening for a Tri-State conference melee. The game will mark the last home appearance of Westminster.

Westminster fans are expecting to see one of the best battles of the year. The two quintets will in all probability exhibit two entirely different styles of play. Westminster stresses the close-in shots while the Covenantors are a care-free lot, shooting from here, there and everywhere.

Their success over Waynesburg is attributed to their uncanny ability to cage the leather from the center of the floor. In Clarke and Rubenstein they have two of the best long shots in the district.

It will be a basketball game from start to finish. In recent years the spirit of athletic rivalry between Westminster and Geneva has steadily become keener. In football and track the Covenantors have held a decided edge during the past few seasons whereas in basketball it has been a toss-up. Westminster must win the impending game to even things this year in the cage sport. "Bo" McMillin's boys trounced Westminster at Beaver Falls during the early part of the season.

The evening will be a typical college function. Geneva will send a large delegation of fans. Westminster's orchestra will play while the big game will be preceded by a preliminary between the Phi Pi Phi fraternity team, champs of the Westminster Intra-Mural league and the winners of the similar league at Geneva. The first game will start at 7 and the Conference tilt at 8.

Field goals—Vago 4, Paulini 3, Sankey 2, Pittaway 1, Mariacher 1, Studebaker 3, Humphrey 1, McCleary 2.

SORDS POINTS

Good Second Baseman Saves the Outfielders Many Steps

By NORMAN E. BROWN.

Outside of George Moriarty making his debut as pilot of the team Marty McManus will draw the lion's share of attention when the Detroit Tigers begin to show their stuff next April.

The acquisition of the former Brown infielder gives the Detroit team the best man for the keystone sack it has boasted in some years.

And incidentally that one deal in which McManus was swapped may throw some light on the failure of both Lee Fohl and George Sisler to turn the St. Louis club into a pennat winning machine.

I have known for three or four years that McManus though a brilliant player, gave Fohl considerable trouble. Although Lee taught Marty many of the fine points of the game the young infielder soon began soon to feel his oats and failed to treat seriously at times the suggestions and orders given him.

Admittedly a brilliant fielder and good all around player McManus did not seem to help mold and infield combination together. This was a great disappointment to Mohl.

Then Sisler succeeded the former Cleveland pilot. George as everyone knows was of the easy going type and left them to their own salvation most of the time. This attitude apparently failed to improve McManus' general value to the club as a team play man.

Salary Bothered Too.

These conditions and a salary difference with Owner Ball had made the situation uncomfortable often but neither Fohl nor Sisler succeeded in eliminating the trouble—if they tried.

Then along came Dan Howley.

A new comer to the ranks of the big league pilots Howley had scarcely checked over his office furniture when he pulled a trade with Detroit. Without batting an eye he sent McManus to the Tiger team and Infielder Bob La Motte and Catcher Bill Hargrave to Toronto in exchange for four players owned by the Tigers. They were Walter Stewart, star pitcher of the Toronto team last year, Infielder Otis Miller and Bill Mullen of the Toronto team and Frank O'Rourke utility infielder with the Tigers.

A rather drastic move this sending a man recognized as one of the best second basemen in the game on paper at least to another club in exchange for three youngsters whose ability in the majors had not been proved and a fourth who was never been more than a utility infielder.

Knows His Stewart.

But Howley was not moving blindly if he was moving suddenly. As boss of the Toronto team he knew all about Stewart's ability as a pitcher and the capabalities—in the minors at least—of Mullen and Miller. Mullen started the season with the Tigers if I recall correctly and had battled it out with Warner for the third base job.

It is reasonable to suppose that known McManus's accepted ability as a player the Brown bosses could have pulled an advantageous trade at any time had they so decided.

Can it be that it took Dan Howley to gamble on the "flareback" on such a deal on the chance of molding together a smoother working ball club?

Time will tell.

Twenty-One Hurlers In Washington Camp, But Only Three Southpaws

By GEORGE A. STRICKLER
International News Service Staff Correspondent

CHICAGO, Mar. 2.—There will be little room for anyone else in Tampa when Bucky Harris moves his contingent of pitchers into the Washington training camp late this month.

Twenty-one hurlers, only three of which live by their left arm, will make the trip, all of which leads one to believe Harris rates his championship chances as great as the pitching staff he can assemble.

Only one of the three portsiders has seen the white of Big League batsmen's eyes. He is E. G. Braxton, who sojourned with the pennant winning Yankees last year. Bob Burke, of Joliet, Ill., just up from Little Rock, and Clarence Thomas, who travelled with Birmingham and Rochester in 1926, are the other two.

The right hand corps is led by Walter Johnson, venerable, ambitious and still quite a pitcher. Johnson will start his 21st campaign as a Senator and turn his 40th year during the season. Harris looks to "Ol' Barney" for many a victory yet before he falls in line with the persistent rumors of his retirement.

"He's 20 summers old as ball players go, aged in wood and 190 proof," mused Harris as he drew up the roster.

With Stanley Coveleskie packed to accompany the antiquated Johnson, Harris might bill his troupe as "Grandfathers of the Game." Coveleskie is 35 years old and has completed eleven years of spit-balling in the American League.

While these old soldiers will undoubtedly not be able to answer the call during the season with the regularity that some of the younger men will be asked to, they can be depended on to give good account of themselves when they do take up the summones.

Johnson may not see action more often than every five days, and Coveleskie probably will draw a similar assignment, if not one of more infrequent appearances.

Depends On Marberry

To back up these old mainstays, and take a full portion for themselves once-in-awhile, Harris will have Fred Marberry, "relievingest" pitcher in baseball, and Hollis Thurston, erstwhile White Sox, who went to Washington in the deal that brought Roger Peckinpaugh to Chicago.

Marberry, if he can strike up the pace in a regular turn he has maintained as a rescue artist, will be one of the outstanding men in Harris' company. Thurston experienced a season replete with indifferent endeavors last year, but regardless of his pitching strength he will see plenty of action. He can hit well in the pinches; in fact he can hit well anytime, and this alone will give him many a chance.

Alvin Crowder, who acquired great publicity for deeds well done last year after Harris had brought him up from Birmington, is looked to as the fifth member of a Big Five somewhat prematurely designated to carry Washington through.

Braxton's record with the Yankees was not exceedingly impressive, but a record worth mention for lefthanders. He turned back opponents in five starts and was credited with defeatd once.

Burke won eleven and lost eight in the Southern Association and Thomas won four and lost seven. If one of these left handers can assume the role of a regular with any degree of consistent winning, Harris will stand more than an even chance of accomplishing his objective.

Harris Is Optimistic

Among the right-handed rookies bidding for recognition are H. Lisenbee, who comes in from Memphis in the Southern Association with an impressive record. In twenty-six full games he emerged victorious seventeen times and was beaten nine.

Irving Hadley garnered fourteen triumphs for Birmingham in the same circuit while the enemy looked better on seven occasions.

Leo Mangum, the other part of the White Sox balance in the Peckinpaugh deal, was sent to Portland in the Coast League last year after a short try out with the Hose, and toiled in 39 games winning nineteen and dropping twenty.

A number of lesser lights, who come with records of no great consequence, round out the squad. Harris views this outlay with great anticipation.

Senior A Team Defeats Sophomores

Senior A basketball team outclassed the Sophomore As last night when they swamped them in a shower of baskets totaling 26 points while the younger team claimed 15 as their score. The game was played on the Senior High school floor before a fair crowd of class fans.

Thomas and Marquis were responsible for the lead taken by the older boys, their fine passing and shooting featuring.

E. Bauman was the main attraction for the defeated lads.

The lineup:

Senior A—26.		Saphomore A—15
Thomas	F	Roher
Marquis	F	McClymonds
Kirk	C	E. Bauman
Christman	G	A. Bauman
Douglas	G	Temar

Subs: Brenner, Bartley, Howley, Tyrell.

Field goals: Thomas 6, Christman 1, Douglas 4, Brenner 2, Roher 2, Tyrell, Howley.

Fouls: Sophomores 5 out of 8

Referee: Bridenbaugh.

Mahoning Midgets Topple Laurells

The Mahoningtown Midgets defeated the Laurell Five by a score of 35 to 17, in a game played on the Seventh Ward court on Tuesday night.

The game was fast and hard fought despite the lopsided score. Lackey with five baskets was the star for the losers, while the work of Culbertson, Purdy and Uber was the best for the Midgets.

The lineup and summary:

Laurell Five.		Mah. Midgets.
McIvor	F	Culbertson
Rogan	F	Uber
Reiber	C	Yeager
Lackey	G	Wray
Nocera	G	Purdy

Subs—Fadda, Wettich.

Field goals—McIvor, Rogan, Reiber, Lackey 5, Culbertson 4, Uber 2, Yeager 2, Wray 2, Purdy 5.

Fouls—Laurell Five, 1 out of 3. Midgets, 3 out of 6.

Assembly Faces Large Calendar

Two Dozen Bills Ready For Final Reading In Today's Session

HOUSE PASSES KUNKLE MEASURE

By ROBERT F. GORMAN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, Pa., Mar. 2. — Like the senate the house today faced the largest Wednesday schedule of the present session of the legislature. Some two dozen bills were ready for third reading. Approximately seventy bills were on the day's first reading calendar, thus insuring some busy sessions next week.

Action of the house late yesterday fattened the number of bills in the senate. All of the house measures acted upon favorably were sent to the upper house for concurrence.

Among these measures were the following: Turner Bill, establishing a Bureau of Aeronautics in the Department of Internal Affairs; Horn Bill regulating the use of the American flag; Richardson Bill providing for the carrying of the American flag at the head of all processions excepting funeral processions where there is no music nor marching forces; Turner Bill empowering second and third class cities to acquire and maintain land for parks; Sowers Bill changing the estates of husband and wife in property hereafter acquired and held as tenants by entireties to tenants in common in the event of divorce; Goehring Bill authorizing a married woman granted a divorce to convey and encumber her real estate without the joinder of her husband.

The house also notified the senate that it had passed the Kunkle Senate Bill designating March 5 as Pennsylvania Day to commemorate the granting of the charter by Charles II, of England to William Penn.

P. And O. League Games Of Week

With only three weeks to go before the close of the championship season, the athletes of the Penn-Ohio System are primed for stirring battles this week in both the basketball and bowling leagues.

All of the basketball games will be played on Wednesday. Warren will meet the Youngstown office five at Youngstown, the Youngstown Municipal Railway team will go to Sharon, playing the quint of that district, while the P.-O. coach tossers will battle the New Castle team at New Castle.

On Tuesday the Youngstown Office bowling team will meet Lowellville at Campbell. On Wednesday the P.-O. Coach bowlers go to New Castle for a league match with New Castle. Friday Sharon meets the Youngstown Municipal team at Youngstown.

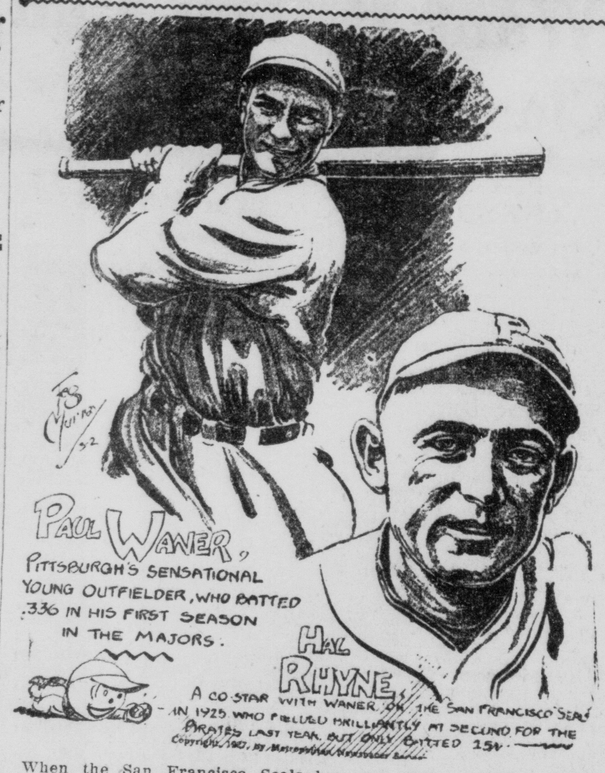
Rookies Who Made Good — By Feg Murray



When the San Francisco Seals sold their two stars, Waner and Rhyne to the Pittsburgh club during the summer of 1925 many smart baseball men said "That means no pennant for the Seals in 1926 and no regular jobs for two fine young stars who can't possibly replace any of the Pirate regulars." They were right as far as the San Francisco club went for the Seals could not win the Coast league pennant the next year without the valuable services of Paul Waner who batted .401 the year before and Hal Rhyne who batted .215 but they were wrong about the two rookies going jobless, for the following June found the youngsters playing regularly in the Pirate line-up.

It is ancient history now, how Carey's illness gave Waner his chance in the outfield and how he made good with a bang, and how Rhyne soon took Eddie Moore's job away from him at second, although he had been a short stop with the Seals. While Rhyne's fielding was sensational his batting was a disappointment and he will have to compete with a brilliant infielder named Cronin in order to keep his job this season. It is said that Hal has eyes that magnify a moving object, which would explain his great fielding but not his mediocre batting.

Waner quite won the hearts of the Pittsburgh fans last year with his speed, his throwing and his heavy hitting. Pittsburgh can easily claim the league's batting championship for their young outfielder, for none of the half dozen men who finished with a higher average than 107 games (Bressler in only 86) while Paul took part in 144. Only three other players in the league hit out more doubles than Waner and he topped them all when it came to hitting triples. And he and his team mate Cuyler were the only birds to tally 10 times during the season. Just one more line about Phil—on last August 26 he got six hits in six times at bat and included in those bingles were two doubles and one triple.

He's in to stay, this lad.

Feg Murray Says.

Athletes from Georgetown, Illinois, Rutgers, Lafayette and Syracuse were assembled for a relay race. The initials on their jerseys spelled out what was uppermost in each one's mind.

SPORTS DONE BROWN

ENROUTE TO THE TRAINING CAMPS, March 2.—While practically all of the major league regulars, southpaws and rookies have signed their contracts for the coming year there may still be a hitch or two to be ironed out before the jolly athletes take the field for the opening games come April.

For this is the year of trick contracts. The clause providing for the player's services as a ball player from March 1 to October 30 is just a small part of the legal document in many cases. Fulfillment of some of the more novel contracts includes paying for the player's daily bath, oiling his glove, providing a snappy roadser for his wife—and a standing order at he haberdashers for new ties.

No Kidding Either.

Take Burleigh Grimes' case for instance. It comes out now that one stipulation in the contract this veteran Brooklyn pitcher signed with the Giants was that the New York club pay for 21 baths he wanted to take at Hot Springs, Ark. before joining the team. Probably seven of them are salt baths, six witch hazel, four mud and the rest plain, ordinary scrubbing bees, through which one's ears are finally made to look like new.

* * *

Whether or not McGraw had to throw in a lavender bath robe and mule isn't known.

Ty Cobb's agreement with Connie Mack—if not the contract itself—stipulates that the Georgian is to play the outfield regularly for the Athletics. No fair putting him on the bench.

Tris Speaker turned down a gilt edge pinch hitting offer from Huggins. Signed with Washington on the promise that he could get away to hear the President's annual message to congress, attend the ambassador's ball and be photographed with the Texas delegations.

* * *

Joe Boley after seven years with the Baltimore Orioles, probably has it in black and white that he isn't to be sent back there if he fails to come up to Connie Mack's expectations. He's Dunn with Baltimore.

* * *

Babe Ruth's new contract will contain more clauses than a notion counter does buttons. Included will be one which calls for part of his salary to be placed in a trust fund. Other ball players may get a large laugh out of the fact that the part Babe lays away is more than they'll draw for two or three years.

* * *

If the games are halted now and then next season the delay may be blamed to the desire of a player to take another look at Clause 82, to see whether or not he's due to get a free bath or a side trip to Atlantic City after the game.

"Dukes" Capture Tri-State Title

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, March 2.—Duquesne University's quintet held its second tri-state conference title today, clinching the championship here last night by defeating Bethany 30 to 19.

Bethany got away to a lead which it held through the first period, but Duquesne hit its stride in the next period and took the lead. Vernon, Duke center, scored six field goals.

Carnegie Tech ended its home season by bowing before Washington and Jefferson, 42 to 30. The visitors had everything their own way from the outset.

After all, the majority gets the responsibility and the minority has the fun.

Twenty-Six Are Still Entombed By Mine Disaster

Twenty-Four Bodies Have Been Recovered From English Mine

EBBW VALE, Eng., March 2—Twenty-four bodies have been brought up from the Cwm mine which was wrecked by a gas explosion yesterday it was announced today.

Five more miners were rescued alive. Twenty-six men are still entombed and but little hope is entertained that rescue crews will find them alive.

Training Camps

(International News Service)

PASO ROBLES, Cal., Mar. 2. — The heavy battery of Pirate pitchers came in for their share of workout here today at their training camp, Manager Donie Bush calling upon Meadows, Yde, Morrison, Aldridge and a number of rookie moundmen to go through their paces. Bush did not wait for the arrival of the rest of his squad at the Pittsburgh camp to order his pitchers to open up. Intensive batting practice is on the program for the Pirates for the next few days.

BRADENTON, Fla. — Several members of the Phillies were sporting stiff arms and minor bruises today as a result of the second day of the spring training grind. None are serious, however. Young Fresco Thompson, new second baseman continues to have the most pep of any player in camp. Pitchers John Quinn and Wayland Dean are still missing and McInnis is trying to find out when the men are coming to camp.

FORT MEYERS, Fla. — The two squads of Athletics, headed by Captain Eddie Collins and Jimmy Dykes were to work out again today in separate drills, then tomorrow mix in the first of a series of games. Zack Wheat was the cynosure of spectators as the veteran instantly grabbed a bat and started whacking the ball all over the field as soon as he reported. The Branom-Collins-Boley-Hale inner cordon went through another smooth workout, giving promise of being a great double play quartet.

TARPON SPRINGS, Fla. — The apparent return to oldtime form of George Sisler, who in recent seasons has given only mediocre contributions with his bat, is the talk of the Browns camp. George in his initial workout swung his bludgeon with a vengeance and freely cracked the ball. Indicating his sinus trouble has left him.

AVON PARK, Fla.—Interest at the training camp of the Cardinals is enlivened with the arrival of Frankie Frisch, former Giant, who will cavort at the station left vacant by Hornsby.

Jimmy Ring, Billy Southworth and Joe Burns, the latter a recruit catcher, also get into uniform today, leaving only two holdouts, Tommy Thevenow and Flint Rhem.

The major leagues are to have another "Cuban wonder" this season. This time it is Senor Antonio Castro, who has been catching in the Cuban Winter League, and whom Manager McGraw has decided to give a tryout with the Giants.

CARDINALS' STRATEGY BOARD

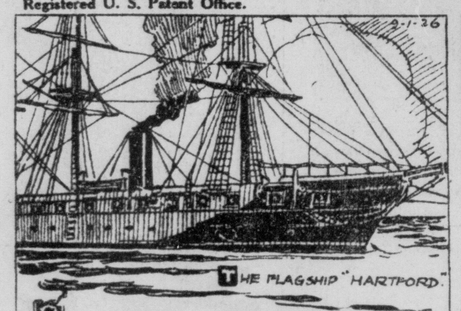
HIGH LIGHTS OF HISTORY
Farragut's Fleet Assembles.
by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD

Registered U. S. Patent Office.



ON FEB. 20, 1862, FARRAGUT ARRIVED AT SHIP ISLAND (OFF BILOXI, MISS.), WHICH WAS TO SERVE AS A BASE OF OPERATIONS FOR THE UNION NAVAL AND MILITARY EXPEDITION AGAINST NEW ORLEANS. FARRAGUT CALLED THE SHIPS OF THE BLOCKADING FLEET TOGETHER AND ON MARCH 7TH REACHED PASS A L'OUTRE, ONE OF THE MOUTHS OF THE MISSISSIPPI, WITH THE "HARTFORD" AND "PENSACOLA".

AFTER A LONG DELAY IN GETTING THE LARGER SHIPS ACROSS THE BAR AT THE MOUTH OF THE RIVER, THE FLEET ASSEMBLED AT THE HEAD OF THE PASSES. FARRAGUT HAD ABOUT 48 SHIPS OF EVERY DESCRIPTION, NOT INCLUDING THE TRANSPORTS BEARING 9,000 SOLDIERS UNDER GEN. BUTLER.

IN APRIL, THE TWENTY MORTAR SCHOONERS OF COMMANDER PORTER'S DIVISION, WHICH HAD PRECEDED THE FLEET OVER THE BAR, WERE TOWED UP THE RIVER AND PLACED IN POSITION WITHIN RANGE OF FORT JACKSON. SMALL STEAMERS WERE SENT AHEAD TO MAKE OBSERVATIONS AND SOUNDINGS AND WERE FIRED ON BY CONFEDERATE SHARPSHOOTERS ALONG THE SHORE.

ON THE NIGHT OF APRIL 17TH, THE CONFEDERATES SENT BLAZING FIRE RAFTS FLOATING DOWNSTREAM IN THE HOPE OF BURNING THE FEDERAL FLEET. THIS DANGER WAS AVERTED BY QUICK ACTION ON THE PART OF BOAT CREWS FROM THE WARSHIPS AND THE FLAMING RAFTS WERE TOWED HARMLESSLY ASIDE.

TOMORROW—THE BOMBARDMENT OF FORT JACKSON.

Would Amend Gas Tax Measure

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Pa., Mar. 2. — Representative Charles R. Griffith of Indiana county, inaugurated an entirely new custom in the house today by presenting a bill to amend a bill introduced in the house Monday night by Rep. R. B. Hess, Lancaster.

The Hess bill was the 3-cent gasoline tax measure and Griffith's bill would amend it by exempting kerosene, fuel oil and gas oil from taxation.

The usual procedure is to add amendments and not by separate bills.

N. Y. STOCKS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Mar 2.—Moderate reactions in stock prices accompanied the liberal offerings of active railroad and industrial stocks in early trading today. The general trend of the market was downward, with market leaders like General Motors and Baldwin losing a point or two. But exceptional strength was displayed by American Smelting and some of the other newcomers to the bullish list, and these stocks were able to move against the trend.

The professionals in the financial district renewed their efforts for a break in stock prices. Heavy offerings on the floor of the exchange bent the list downward from 2 to 4 points in the first period, but the offerings were well-absorbed, and losses in the well-known stocks were moderate.

Speculative interest was again withdrawn from the railroad stocks and concentrated on the industrials. The oils were freely sold on the new production peak for crude oil. Houston declined 4 points and Phillips Petroleum fell to a new low for the movement. U. S. Steel and the leading independent steel shares displayed conspicuous strength, to the accompaniment of reports of increased buying of finished steel and higher pig iron prices. The coppers were also firm, under the lead of American Smelting.

Call money renewals were marked down again to 4 per cent, with plenty of funds at that rate.

State Senators Struggle With Heavy Calendar

Two Important Woodward Bills Sent Back To Committee

PASS MEASURE FOR EXECUTIVE MANSION

By WILLIAM B. BROWN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, Pa., March 2.—Despite the apparent effort of the senate to wade through a heavy Wednesday calendar as quickly as possible, "the hour of noon" arrived while it was still busy with the second reading roll call.

The bill which would have prohibited Building and Loan Associations from making syndicated loans on the motion of its sponsor George Woodward, Philadelphia, was sent back to committee. The bill previously had passed second reading before being recommitted for a public hearing. It was reported out again last night. Its return today is taken to mean that the Philadelphia interests have turned "Thumbs Down" on it and that it will not reappear.

On the motion of Senator Leslie, Allegheny, the Woodward, Philadelphia bill which would have permitted county and city employes to become a part of the state employe's retirement association was sent back to committee for a public hearing. Leslie objected because the bill apparently does not include provisions for the Allegheny county employes. Woodward in reply to Leslie's charges said he would welcome a public hearing on the bill.

The measure of Senator Macdade, Delaware, providing a $10,000 appropriation for the establishing of a public park at Chadd's Ford in that county was held over in order.

The commission which was appointed to acquire a site for the building of a new eastern penitentiary will be held over until the completion of its work by passage of the Salus, Philadelphia, bill.

The measure, carrying an appropriation of $500,000 for the construction of a new executive mansion and providing a commission to handle the work, passed without a dissenting vote.

The salary raiser for county commissioners in third, fourth and fifth-class counties, was amended on the motion of its sponsor, Boyd, Chester, and will appear on the calendar again next Monday night.

Another of Boyd's salary raisers which will permit the employment of stenographers by district attorneys in fourth-class counties and increase their pay to $2,500 a year was passed.

Senate Adjourned

Thirty-seven bills, including the judges' salary raiser, was passed on second reading. That means at least two score bills will be up for final action next Monday night.

A resolution was passed asking the fiscal officers and budget secretary to furnish more specific forecasts of expected revenue during the next bi-ennium. It was later passed by the House and returned to the Senate. Both Houses apparently believe the budget forecasts of revenue for the next two years are too low. This belief was supported by the treasury statement last night showing the commonwealth has $53,000,000 in all funds and with all bills paid.

Bills reported from committee included that of Steele, Northumberland, making judges eligible to the state employe's retirement system and that of Mrs. Vare, Philadelphia, providing for a commission to work out preliminary details of a second bridge across the Delaware at that city.

The Senate adjourned shortly after noon until nine o'clock Monday night.

Jurors Continue Deliberations On Daugherty-Miller

By DAVID P. SENTNER,
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Mar. 2.—The jury in the second trial of former Attorney General Harry M. Daugherty and former Alien Property Custodian Thomas W. Miller resumed their deliberations at 10:30 o'clock this morning after having been locked up at the Hotel McAlpin at 11:40 last night by order of Federal Judge Knox.

The jury, when it resumed its deliberations this morning, already had considered the case for ten and one-half hours.

Daugherty and Miller are charged with conspiracy in connection with the $7,000,000 American Metal Company claim against the government.

There was no hint on how the jury stood.

In the first trial last September the jury was unable to agree in sixty-six hours.

Oil Well Shooter To Carry "Soup" Via Airplanes

(International News Service)

AMARILLO, Tex., Mar. 2.—Tex Thornton, most widely known of that daredevil class of "oil well shooters" in the Texas Panhandle field has no fears in handling "nitro soup." He has handled quarts on several years without serious accident and now he plans to put another fuse in his cap.

He has ordered three airplanes from a San Diego factory to be used as "soup ships." In the planes he will transport his explosives to distant wells, instead of depending on auto trucks.

Each ship will have a capacity of 1,000 pounds of explosive. The explosive storage will be suspended on springs and will be padded with rubber shock absorvers.

The planes will come in handy for quick trips. Tex says, where his services are required to blast out fires in oil wells.

It was Tex who last year startled the oil world by catching a tube of nitroglycerine after the tube had been dropped in the hole. The tube was caught by a gust of gas and was blown from the casing. Considerable damage would have resulted had he allowed the tube to come in contact with anything solid.

New Castle Men Attend Meeting

Storer, of East Pittsburgh, before the March meeting of the Sharon section, American Institute of Electrical Engineers. Mr. Storer, who is consulting railway engineer for the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company, spoke from long familiarity with the development of railway electrification in which Westinghouse has played a leading part. He discussed electric locomotives as well as combination oil-electric motors, and pointed out essential differences between the two forms of engine drive.

The meeting, held in the sunshine auditorium in Walnut avenue, was attended by engineers from Sharon, Youngstown, Mercer, New Castle and Warren, Pa. N. L. Cole, of Sharon, presided at the meeting; L. H. Hill, of Sharon, is secretary.
